School Budget cut $241,500

Teachers contract settled

Teachers contract settled

An agreement securing the long-standing wishes of teachers' unions was concluded recently in a meeting of the teachers of Sunnyside School. The agreement was the result of many months of negotiation, and is considered by both sides to be a fair and equitable settlement. It includes provisions for a 5% increase in the teachers' salaries and an additional 2% increase for the next year. The agreement was signed by the principal and the teachers, and the contract will take effect immediately. The teachers were pleased with the agreement, and the principal expressed his appreciation for their hard work and dedication to the school. The agreement is expected to be ratified by the school board at their next meeting.

It's No April Fool Joke

To have the teachers' contract settled and the school budget get nearly a quarter of a million dollars in one week seems to be a great April Fool's joke. Today may be April 1 too early to mention, but the day is there.

These two important situations are finally resolved and it is the end of the school term during which we have been told that previous budgets have "been heck" when in reality a lot of
"was done.

Another tragic situation is believed by the action of those who oppose the salary settlement. Being empty转变为 bring about an agreement with the teachers, their opposition to the contract spoils nothing more than a case of "narrow.

Forget that was done under the same so much that deserves to be praised. Congratulations to the borough commissioners for doing a job of things because of previous par-chcles.

Congratulations also to the negotiating laws led by Rear Admiral and Mary Gouge for the teachers for setting the long drawn-out teachers' content.

The long winter is finally over and spring
time really has arrived.

Students win music awards

The Holmdel Academy in Holmdel, N.J. held the annual annual music contest for the school, a prestigious event that attracts students from across the county. The contest featured a variety of music genres, including classical, orchestra, choir, and band performances. The winners were announced at a special ceremony, where they received plaques and certificates in recognition of their achievements. Among the winners were Junior Class President Michael Smith, who won first place in the orchestra category, and Senior Class President Victoria Green, who won second place in the choir category. Other winners included freshmen David Lee and Emily Brown, who won third place in the band category.

Baritone to perform in concert

Among those who are moving forward are: Anna Smith, a junior at Holmdel High School and a member of the school's choir. Anna has been invited to perform at the annual state music festival, where she will be the featured soloist in the school's performance of "The Star-Spangled Banner." This is a great opportunity for Anna to showcase her talent and share her love of music with others.

Three Variances

Three variances were granted in March by the Adj. Board of Trustees of the Hawthorne Board of Education. Joseph Nolan of 26 Mountain View Drive, School of Education, was granted the first variance. Variance was needed because a recent survey of the property revealed a change in the property line of 22 feet. A variance was also granted to the Nassau Street Club, Inc. of Valley Street.

Is the School Board planning an appeal?

After listening to Tuesday night's discussion on whether or not to accept the school budget cuts, we see a definite leaning toward an appeal. With the current economic situation, the Washington board president seems to be thinking that there are several ways to reach the $2,000,000 budget reduction. It's not hard to guess what kind of supplementary measures.

We disagree with the approach Mr. Pau- trick is taking. He seems to propose a solution that cannot be accepted in its entirety. Our school board must be in a position to make decisions that are right for the students and teachers. We believe that our school board should consider an appeal of the budget cuts. This is a critical moment for our school system. The budget cuts will have a significant impact on our students and teachers. We urge you to consider an appeal of these cuts.

Residents raise protests over Goffle Hill sewer assessments

Residents of Goffle Hill Drive and Milford Avenue presented the method of calculating the sewer assessments to the Public Works Committee at the April 25 meeting. The method was determined to be unfair and the residents asked for a reformation of the process.

The assessment board has said that the public works committee is responsible for the assessments. The residents believe that the method of calculating the assessments is flawed.

The assessment board has said that it is necessary to increase the assessments to meet the financial needs of the town. The residents believe that the assessments are too high and that they are being charged for services that they do not receive.

The residents have asked for a reformation of the assessment process and for a meeting with the assessment board to discuss the matter further.

State appeal planned for remaining $72,826

School Board accepts $168,674 cut

At its third meeting of the year, the School Board accepted the $168,674 cut made in the budget by Passaic County Freeholders in May. The board, however, expressed its disapproval of the $72,826 remaining cut made by the county.

The board said it would appeal the $72,826 cut, which is the difference between the budget passed by the board and the $168,674 cut accepted by the board. The board said it would seek to have the $72,826 cut reversed, or at least reduced, by the county.

County Freeholders, on the other hand, said they would not appeal the $72,826 cut, and that they would continue to work with the board to find ways to reduce the budget further.

The board said it would continue to work with the county to find ways to reduce the budget, and that it would present a revised budget to the county for consideration.

Revisions proposed for Blasberg development

Revisions have been proposed for the Blasberg development project, which is planned for an area of land in the town.

The revisions include changes to the design of the buildings, the location of the parking lot, and the landscaping. The town council has approved the revisions, and the project is expected to begin soon.

The project is expected to create new housing units, as well as commercial space.

Revisions to the plan to develop the Blakey Road area were also discussed. The town council is expected to vote on the revisions next month.

The council heard a presentation on the revisions, which were proposed by the developer.

The revisions include changes to the design of the buildings, the location of the parking lot, and the landscaping. The council has not yet made a decision on the revisions, but is expected to vote on them next month.

The project is expected to create new housing units, as well as commercial space.

Who’s minding the courts?

Pistone, the former head of the New Jersey crime family, was convicted of racketeering and other charges in 1986. He was sentenced to life in prison for his role in the murders of two police officers. He was released from prison in 2008, after serving 20 years.

Pistone has been a controversial figure in New Jersey politics, as he has been repeatedly named in investigations into corruption and other crimes. He was involved in a corruption scandal in the 1980s, and was accused of helping to fix elections in New Jersey.

Pistone has also been accused of being connected to organized crime. He was involved in a plot to hijack a plane and fly it to Cuba, and was accused of being involved in drug trafficking.

Pistone’s case has been the subject of a number of books and films, including the 2007 film “The Family Man.” The film was based on Pistone’s memoir “The Family Man: My Life as a Mafia Boss.”

Is The Lock Next?
Cable TV proposed for the borough

Unprecedented fire crossing.

Cable television is one of the greatest fires your borough has ever faced. It is the focus of the joint action of the Borough Planning Board and Recreation Department. The proposal is a major one in the upgrading of public services and programs. It is the original proposal to install cable television in the Borough, to improve citywide services, to provide much-needed programing for various interest groups, and to be ready for the future.

April 29, 1976

Congressman Dr. Hummel drive held at WPC

In a show of support for the installation of cable television in the Borough, Congresswoman Dr. Hummel held a drive at WPC last week. The drive was attended by representatives of various organizations and community leaders. Congressman Hummel, who has been a strong advocate of cable television, emphasized the importance of the project in improving public services and enhancing the quality of life in the Borough.

April 29, 1976

In the midst of community support, the Borough Planning Board and Recreation Department are moving forward with the cable television proposal. They have met with numerous groups and organizations to discuss the potential benefits of this project. The Borough Administration is committed to ensuring that the project is completed in a timely manner, with the involvement of all interested parties.

Letters to the Editor

April 24, 1976

Dear Mr. Millumin:

I appreciate your communication to the editor of the April 21, 1976, edition and I believe that the implications of your view are both valid and insightful. However, I would like to address a few points that I believe are crucial to the discussion.

Firstly, the issue of "litter" on public property is a complex one. While it is true that littering is a problem, it is also true that efforts to combat the issue often involve interventions that may not be the most effective or efficient. I believe that we should focus on both the root causes and the immediate solutions to this problem.

Secondly, I believe that the "off-the-shelf" policy for dealing with littering is not always the best approach. While it might be easy to implement, it may not address the underlying reasons for littering.

I appreciate your concern and I hope that we can continue to have these valuable discussions.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
