Swimming Meet Draws 247 Entrants

70-foot freestyle for girls and 100-foot backstroke for boys of 13, 14 and 15 years of age; mixed women's race; 75-foot backstroke for 12, 14 15 year old girls and a 70-foot freestyle race for boys in the same age bracket.

Ray Whitford will then give a diving demonstration and 140-foot freestyle race for boys and girls 16 and over will follow.

The next event will be an exhibition by the Yankers Canoe Club featuring Steve Lysek, Adolph Springs and Joseph Ryan, while the final two racing events will be the 110-foot backstroke race for boys and girls of 16 and over.

The last regular event on the program is the mixed diving competition. Raymond Rhodes will then present the awards to the winners of the various races.

The meet will be climaxed with the "Dive for Dough" and spectators will be allowed inside the pool fence for the event.

The manager of the meet is Albert Das Ferro, clerk of the course, Kathy Foot, lifeguard, Phyllis Brandt and John Hoven; starter, Al Pfeiffer and assistant starter, Andre LaGalle.

Judges are John Malton, Marjorie Eckert, Eugene R. Eckert, Bob Hand, Jeanette DerHollander, Herman Van Kesteren and Raymond Whitford Jr.

Edel Aurich is general chairman of the committee and Neil Postorf is chairman of the arrangements committee. They are being assisted by William Meers, Ruth Meyer and Das Ferro.

Always expect the unexpected where children are concerned... remembering children are unpredictable—the motorist must think for them in traffic.

Give young bike riders a break. Drive with extreme caution near schools, playgrounds, and in residential areas.

Be especially alert in school areas for signs, signals, traffic police, patrol boys and children themselves.

TRAIN THE KIDS Children can obey all traffic officers, school patrol, traffic signs and signals.

What schools are doing, so as to avoid any conflict in instruction, approved play areas—never in the street or near moving traffic.

Teach children safe use of outdoor toys such as roller skates, tricycles, bicycles, scooters, and wagons.

Infill in children the attitude that safety rules must be given the same respect and obedience as other conduct rules learned at home and school.
