A dilemma: more programs, less funds

Budgets may never completely align with wishes, but if finances are tight the tendency is to cut the low hanging fruit. With the embers still glowing from the last school year, one would think the first order of business is to start planning for next year.

Don't shoot deer, unless they shoot first

A city councilman sent a city manager a letter about a deer which is eating residents' garbage. The city manager has asked the councilman to bring in a dead deer to demonstrate the problem. While it's good to be prepared, let's be careful what we wish for.

Committee for gifted holds 1st meeting

The committee for gifted students held its first meeting on Monday. The committee is made up of parents, teachers, and administrators.

Dear Editor,

I wanted to express my support for the new program for gifted students. I believe it will benefit our community.

Sincerely,
