Pedestrian killed in auto mishap

In Hawthorne

A 77-year-old Newark woman was killed yesterday night when she was hit by a car while crossing Boulevard Bridge at Washington Avenue, in St. Anthony's C. C. Church.

Agatha Hovanidou, 177 N. Prospect Drive, Hawthorne, another of Hawthorne residents, Agatha was killed on her way to Christmas dinner at the church. Her car was running smoothly when she was struck by the car that hit her.

There was no immediate report on the cause of the accident.

Kiamie wins round for reinstatement

North Ridgewood Superintendent of Schools Robert A. Kiamie was another round in his fight to get his job back when State Commissioner of Education Paul F. Boyle confirmed the charges against him. He was fired in 1968 after being accused of corruption.

Kiamie, who is active in church affairs, has been denied reappointment to the position. He has called for reappointment with a staff of 25.

The U.S. Supreme Court, in a 5-4 decision, ruled in favor of Kiamie, who was fired for corruption.

Kiamie was found guilty of embezzlement and other charges and was given a 10-year sentence, which was later reduced to 5 years.

Kiamie was released in 1975 after serving his sentence.

Kiamie has been active in the community and has been a vocal advocate for educational reform.

Burglary case going to grand jury

by funnel Hoffman

The grand jury today returned a true bill against the three men charged with the burglary of the Okeefe's Liquor store June 1.
The three men, Robert L. King, 21, of 495 Oak Street;
Mark Martin, 17, of 417 Oak Street; and William K. Martin, 21, of 495 Oak Street, each face a charge of second degree burglary.

King, Martin and William Martin were arrested May 28 for the Okeefe's burglary.

The case was presented to the grand jury at a meeting held in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace William Green.

Health bd. warning

The Hawthorne Board of Health has requested a change in the disposal of dangerous chemicals and other common household products. The change would prevent the improper disposal of these substances,
which can cause harm to the environment.

Recent studies have shown that the improper disposal of these substances
poses a risk to the environment.

The change would require the proper disposal of these substances in designated areas and facilities.

This change is necessary to protect the environment and prevent harm to the community.

A tragic incident in 1979 in our quiet borough

Today marks the beginning of a new decade. Looking back at 1979 in Hazleton, there was only one event that would have a dramatic effect on the borough, and that was the death of a child in our borough.

The tragic event took place on January 1, 1979, in Hazleton. A two-year-old child was hit by a car while playing in the street. The child was taken to Hazleton Hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. The child's name was Edward J. Suter.

The local community was shocked and saddened by the loss of such a young life. The memorial service for Edward J. Suter was held on January 3, 1979, at St. Anthony's Church in Hazleton. The service was attended by many mourners who paid their respects to the family and friends of Edward J. Suter.

The community of Hazleton came together to support the family during this difficult time. The Hazleton Press published an article about the tragedy and the community's response to it. The article was published in the January 3, 1979, issue of the Hazleton Press.

The tragic event of January 1, 1979, remains a somber reminder of the fragility of life. It serves as a reminder to all of us to be more vigilant in our community and to always be aware of the dangers that may surround us.

The Hazleton Press

Thumbs Up

Attending the Christmas pageant at the Radio City Music Hall was a fantastic experience. The performers were talented and the production was impressive. The lighting and sound were exceptional, and the audience was cheering for the performers throughout the entire show.

Thumbs Down

The local community responded with mixed feelings to the announcement of the closing of the Hazleton Press. Many people expressed concern about the loss of the local newspaper and the impact it would have on the community. However, others viewed the decision as necessary for the survival of the newspaper.

A Hawthorne High School graduate, Felicia McGinnis, who once dreamed of becoming a marina manager and a skier before her days as a teacher of English, is now managing the school's new reading program. The program is sponsored by the Hawthorne High School Reading Committee, and it is funded by the Hawthorne High School Parent-Teacher Association (PTA).

The program, which is known as the "Reading Room," is located in the library of the school. It is open to all students and provides a quiet place for students to read and study. The room is equipped with comfortable seating, bookshelves, and a computer. The library also has a collection of new and used books that are available for students to borrow.

Felicia McGinnis, who has 10 years of experience as a teacher, was chosen to manage the program because she has a passion for reading and a strong commitment to helping students improve their reading skills. She has been a member of the PTA for the past five years and has volunteered in various capacities, including as a tutor for younger students.

The PTA, which has been active for over 50 years, is responsible for raising funds to support the program. The group has worked hard to ensure that the program is successful, and they are excited about the impact it will have on the students.

The program has already been well-received by the students, who have expressed their appreciation for the new space and the opportunity to read in a quiet environment. The program is expected to continue to grow in the future, and the PTA looks forward to seeing the positive impact it will have on the students.

Market case will be appealed to state board

by Bob Oyler

The market case was appealed to the state board by a group of residents who are opposed to the development of a new shopping center in the area. The group, which includes business owners, residents, and environmentalists, has been fighting against the project for several years.

The group has argued that the proposed development would negatively impact the local economy and the environment. They have also raised concerns about the potential impact on the nearby school district and the local traffic.

The state board has agreed to hear the appeal and will hold a hearing on the case in the near future. The group is hoping that the board will rule in their favor and prevent the development from moving forward.

Hawthorne High on Channel 5

hawthorne-high-school-nj

Hawthorne High School's new broadcast station, Channel 5, has begun airing programming. The station is a joint project of the school and the town's local cable company. The station is broadcast over the school's closed-circuit television system.

The station features a variety of programming, including news, sports, and student-produced shows. The programming is produced by students and faculty members, and it is designed to provide a platform for students to develop their skills in media production.

The station is open to all students and faculty members, and it is intended to be a platform for the school community to share their stories and ideas. The station is also intended to provide a platform for students to develop their skills in media production and to explore different career opportunities in the field.

The station is located in the school's new media center, which was recently completed. The media center is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities, including a television studio, control room, and production area.

The station is broadcasting on a regular basis and is open to the public. The station can be viewed on Channel 5 on the school's closed-circuit television system. The station is also available online through the school's website.

Attempt to pass tax package was a fiasco

The 1990 session of the New Jersey Legislature ended in a fiasco on Tuesday, followed a storyteller's dark-romance narrative. Governor Brendan Byrne tried to sell through $33.9 billion in state appropriations, but he faced staunch opposition from the governor's office, the state's four legislative houses, and the business community. Byrne's attempt to pass a tax package was fraught with controversy, and eventually, the package failed to pass. Byrne's failure to sell the tax package will leave the state in a financial rut. This will only serve to drive more businesses and industries from New Jersey to other states.

In the background is the looming $2.0 billion budget shortfall that isn't going to go away by itself. Byrne's failure to sell the tax package will make it difficult to get additional taxes passed.

Any tax proposal in the 1990 session will face a difficult time. Byrne's effort to pass the package in the last two days of the 1970 session was a failure. The 1970 session should follow the processes of other states and businesses. Unfortunately, Byrne's efforts didn't make it.

There is little time for consultation in the fact that the entire tax deal fell apart. The state's businesses, which opposed the need to fund the tax package, will have to bear the blow of new tax hikes. This will only serve to drive more businesses and industries from New Jersey to other states.

In the background is the looming $2.0 billion budget shortfall that isn't going to go away by itself. Byrne's failure to sell the tax package will make it difficult to get additional taxes passed.

PATH — meeting the needs of gifted students

In October, the PATH Program is scheduled to begin in the Hawthorne School System. The program provides a comprehensive educational experience for gifted and talented students in grades 4-8, and each year-group will be offered a full-time educational program designed to meet their special needs. The PATH Program will be implemented in 1990 and will continue until 1993. Pathways for gifted and talented students in grades 9-12 will be added in 1992. The PATH Program will be implemented in 1990 and will continue until 1993.

Some students may be involved in PATH as a separate program. Although no specific program is offered, PATH does include some special programs. In the fall, PATH will be offered to students in grades 9-12. Although no specific program is offered, PATH does include some special programs. School bd. introduces $7.2 million budget

The Hawthorne Board of Education recently announced its proposed $7.2 million school budget for the year 1980. The budget represents a spending increase of 5.9%, or $415,000 over last year. The board, in a meeting held last Thursday night, unanimously approved the budget. The budget includes provisions for the construction of a new elementary school, the construction of a new high school, and the expansion of the existing high school. The budget also includes provisions for the purchase of new educational equipment and the hiring of additional teachers.

He has been with the school district for ten years, serving as the assistant superintendent of schools. Dr. Chasen is a graduate of the University of California and has a Master’s degree in education.

Hawthorne nurse loses discrimination case

A reporter for the local newspaper reported that the nurse was awarded $20,000 in damages after a discrimination case against the hospital was settled. The nurse had filed a complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, alleging that she was denied a promotion because of her race. The hospital denied the charges and the case was scheduled for trial. The nurse eventually settled for $20,000, which she accepted.

Three companies fined for overweight loads

By Dave Hoffman

Amber County, 119 West St., Rock Island, Illinois 61201, was assessed a total of $92,250 in fines by the Federal Highway Administration for overweight loads.

Citing a highly respected attorney Fredric B. Flemington, who specializes in overweight load cases, the report said that the company was fined for exceeding the weight limits on the roads. The company was also cited for failing to properly report overweight loads.

The report also noted that the company had a history of overweight load violations and was previously fined for similar offenses.

The fines were assessed for violations on Interstate 74, Highway 14, and Route 21.

Arson is no child’s prank: it’s flirting with disaster

When the fire alarm was sounded at Lincoln, School, last Wednesday, a group of children were playing on a bulletin board 10 feet above the floor. As they were running down the stairs, someone threw a lighted match and a fire started.

Fire officials were quick to point out that such fires are among the commonest that occur in schools. They are also quick to point out that no one has been burned in these fires.

We are all aware of how much damage can be done by a child’s prank.

The fire spread quickly and was extinguished before it was out of control. The fire was caused by a child who was playing with matches.

A Big 5% Interest on Checking,
With a Free Gift,
Telephone Bill Paying
And No Small Print

Now, you can earn interest on the money you keep in your checking account. First National Bank of New Jersey will pay you a big 5% interest on all checking funds. It's called 5% Checking.

Interest on Checking. It's all so simple. Just keep a minimum daily balance of $500 on deposit (most banks require a minimum balance of $1,000 or more) and 5% Checking is free of service charges. Interest, compounded daily, is earned on all your 5% Checking funds and credited to you monthly. A nominal fee is charged only if your balance goes below $500 in any month. And there are no per check charges, regardless of how many checks you write.

At First National Bank, we uncomplicate your life by giving you a monthly statement showing all your checking activity and the interest you've earned.

And More. To simplify your checking even more, why not tie in the convenience of First National Bank's Telephone Bill Paying service. It lets you save time, postage, money and bother. Try it free. It's as easy as a phone call. Ask us about Telephone Bill Paying when you come in for new 5% Checking.

Stop in at any office of First National Bank of New Jersey now. And start taking a new interest in your checking account. 5% Checking is here.

Of Even More Special Interest — A Free Gift! Open a new 5% Checking account with $500 or more and receive a warm, fashionable official Olympics scarf — 100% acrylic and sporting the 1988 Winter Olympic colors and official patch, the scarf is yours absolutely free just by opening a new 5% Checking account. Or put $500 in a new or existing passbook or Statement Savings account and receive this special free gift.

We have additional statements for you. The 5% Checking program, of course, is just one of our many money-saving offers. The First National Bank of New Jersey is always ready to provide you with the money-saving products and services that fit your needs. And the First National is not just a name. The First National is the name that says "service."

Olympic boycott is unfair to American athletes

Last Sunday President Carter announced the U.S. would not send athletes to the Olympics in Moscow. While the president is trying to make a statement about the heroin problem, it will only make it worse. Years from now we will realize what we have done.

The U.S. boycotting the Olympics in Moscow is unfair to American athletes. With the Olympics in Moscow, athletes from around the world will be able to compete. However, with the U.S. not sending athletes, the athletes from other countries will not be able to compete.

The U.S. is threatening to boycott the Olympics in Moscow because Russia has been accused of supporting terrorism. However, the United Nations has not made a final decision on whether or not to boycott the Olympics.

The U.S. boycott of the Olympics in Moscow is unfair to American athletes. The athletes from other countries will be able to compete, but the U.S. athletes will not.

We believe that the U.S. should not boycott the Olympics in Moscow. The athletes from other countries should be able to compete, and the U.S. athletes should also be able to compete.

No Office Bank in New Jersey offers
A Big 5% Interest on Checking
With a Free Gift
Telephone Bill Paying
And No Small Print

Now, you can earn interest on the money in your personal checking account. First National Bank of New Jersey will pay you a 5% interest on all checking funds. It's called 5% Checking.

Interest on Checking. It's all so simple. Just keep a minimum daily balance of $500 on deposit (most banks require a minimum balance of $1,000 or more) and 5% Checking is free of service charges. Interest, compounded daily, is earned on all your 5% Checking funds and credited to you monthly. A nominal fee is charged only if your balance goes below $500 in any month. And there are no per check charges, regardless of how many checks you write.

At First National Bank, we uncomplicate your life by giving you a monthly statement showing all your checking activity and the interest you've earned.

And More. To simplify your checking even more, why not tie in the convenience of First National Bank's Telephone Bill Paying service. It lets you save time, postage, money and bother. Try it free. It's as easy as a phone call. Ask us about Telephone Bill Paying when you come in for new 5% Checking.

Stop in at any office of First National Bank of New Jersey now and start a new interest in your checking account. 5% Checking is here.

Three hit 20 in Lombardi win

Hawthorne's Lombardi and Menzies each scored 20 points, as did Coule and Paul Reis. In the boys' game, outfielders Stu Amsden, Bill Mitchell and John Ott scored 20 points each. The following week, Lombardi scored 20 points in a 20-0 win over Passaic.

Changing fuels is more expensive than just a phone call.

Before you do to the pressure of changing your heating system when you're not ready, take a good look at the overall cost. It's likely to be more than you think.
