Controversy erupts over federal funds

A controversy over a portion of the federal funds to be received from the Public Works Employment Bill erupted at the end-of-year session of the school board held last week. The issue revolved around a stipulation in the law that requires a municipality to discuss the expenditure of funds with local subdivisions, which may also have applied for money to fund their projects. In this case, the local school board had to decide whether or not to waive its option to apply for a share of federal funds allocated to the borough. Hawthorne will receive $765,000 for an addition to the public library.

The first motion was made by Frank Petrucci, who suggested the matter be tabled "until we get more information." Norman Smith seconded Petrucci's motion. In the discussion on this matter, President John Pasquale explained that Board of Education had originally applied for federal funds in two areas — renovation of the guidance area, $41,500 and improvement to the Jefferson School ball field, $150,000. "When the original application was denied and the bill was refunded, these projects automatically became applications under the second bill. According to our Supervisor of Building John Zuck, no funds are available for our projects," said Pasquale.

"The issue concerns $41,500" explained the board president. "This amount, which will be used to renovate the high school guidance area, has already been approved in the 1977-78 budget by Hawthorne voters. We, now, have to consider whether to waive our rights to apply for this share of federal money, since we already have this amount in our new budget." Norman Smith responded, "I feel we should sit down with the mayor and commissioners and discuss this issue before we decide. The Board of Commissioners usually carries a million dollar surplus in their budget. We want to renovate Washington School and will need funds to do so. He's (the mayor) campaigned on this library addition for 10 years, so I see no urgency with that project."

The tabling motion was called and did not pass. The 4-4 vote was as follows: "for" — Smith, Petrucci, Chamberlin, Raso; "against" — Criscitelli, Meeter, Van Ry, Pasquale. (Matthews was absent). This was followed by a motion "to waive its option of seeking the federal funds."

As more discussion was generated, John Pasquale asked the members "to leave politics out of it." He added, "I opt for work on the library."

Frank Petrucci disagreed, "As a trustee for the school board, I have no political motivation for my opinion. I just feel that we should be looking out for the needs of the taxpayer. The school budget is blamed year after year for the increase in taxes. If we have a right to the money, I feel we have a right to get it. Other towns set up meetings between official boards to discuss these issues."

"I was totally unaware of our right to the funds until last Thursday," answered Pasquale. "If your only objection is that you want to meet with the commissioners, I don't think we should try and stall the library work for that reason."

"We could have already had a meeting," Petrucci responded. "We're giving up at least $41,500, when we just had to spend $4500 to put toilets on the third floor of their building (the municipal building)."

"We only pay $600 a year in rent," cautioned Pasquale. "If you want to re-negotiate the rent agreement . . ."

"What's wrong with having a meeting between the school board and the commissioners?" questioned Norman Smith. "We have a right to the money and we have an obligation not to give it away."

"We're not giving it away," charged Pasquale. "It's the old story of two pockets and which one the money comes from. This money all comes out of the borough tax rate. We all have our personal likes and dislikes, but why ask the taxpayers to pay an additional $41,500 toward the library when we've already allocated the funds?"

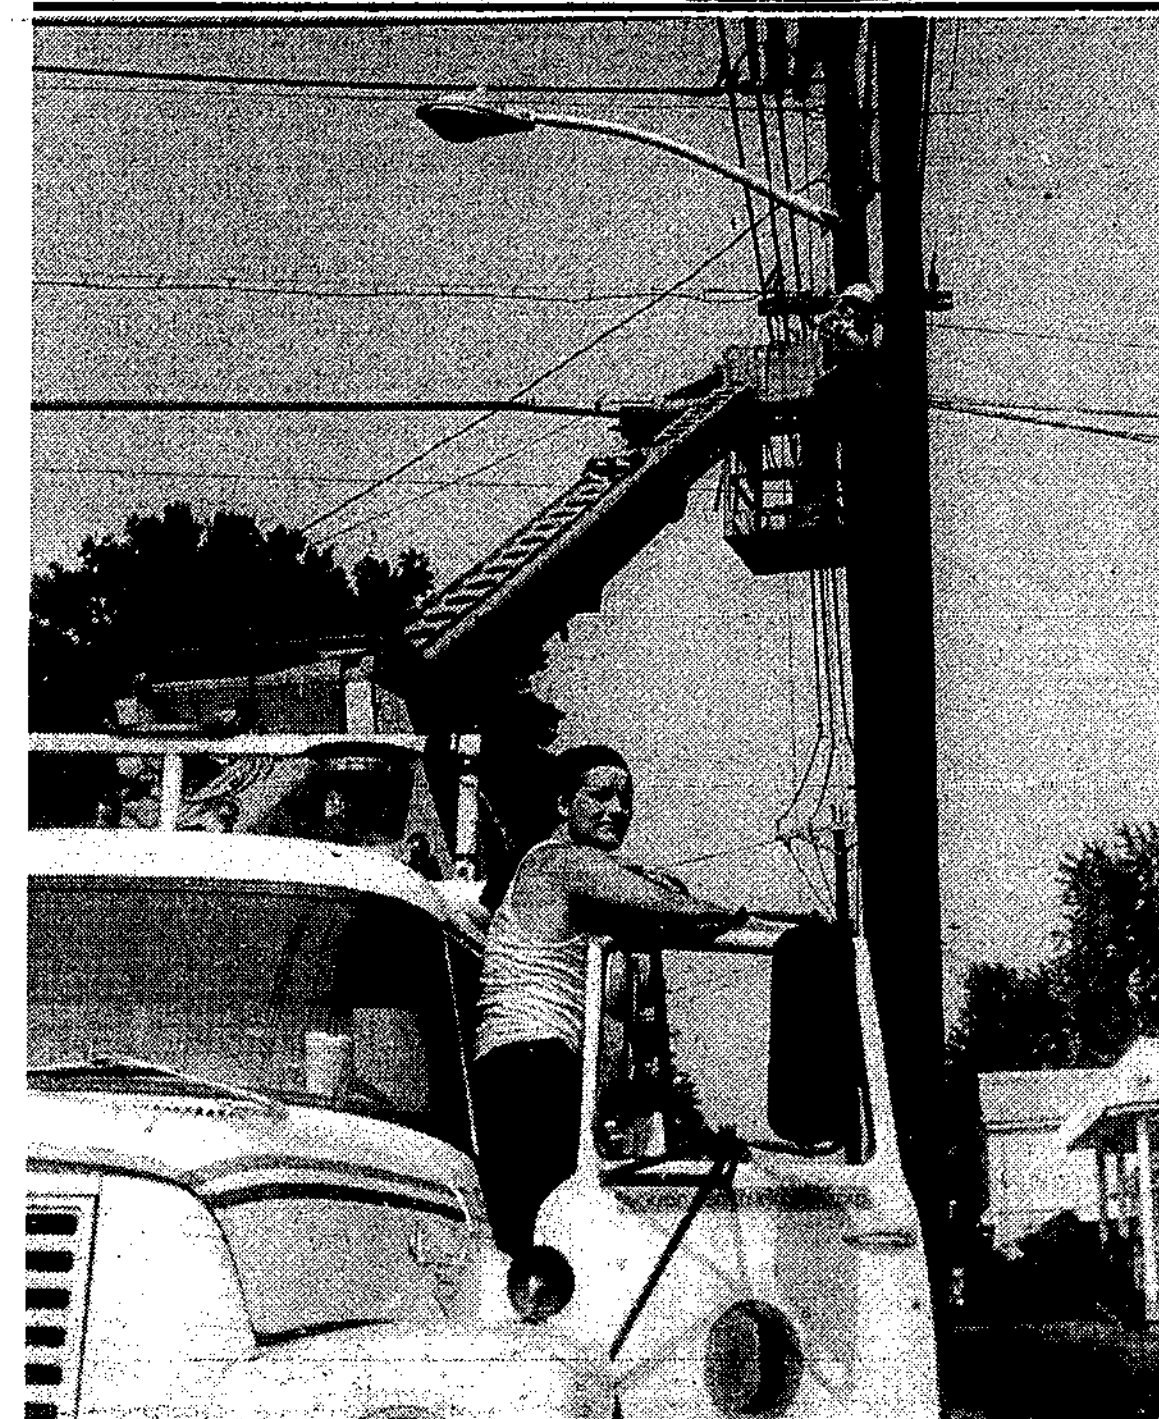

"There would be no taxing of the public," Smith responded. "He's got the money in surplus. Do we want the $41,500 or do we give it to the mayor?"

Ralph Chamberlin stated, "Since we already budgeted $41,500, if we get this amount, it will go into surplus. How can we ask the people to pay a portion of the library, so we can put funds in surplus?"

Gus Raso added that he voted to table only because he wanted clarification on this issue. At the point, the board president called the motion and it passed 6-2. The only dissenting votes were Petrucci and Smith.

In instances where a town's governing body and its subdivisions cannot agree on the expenditure of funds, the matter is referred to the Economic Development Agency, which would then decide which project has the priority. This procedure would undoubtedly cause a delay in construction. Another stipulation . . .

One of the preliminary steps toward the installation of cable TV in the borough began this week as workers from Jackson Communications, Clayton, Ohio, began to construct support cable. Once this step is complete, cable will be constructed, followed by the splicing and balancing process. Then cable TV will be ready to be turned on in this area. The cable installation is expected to take about six months to complete, if no problems occur. Pictured at work are George and Michael Marse of the Ohio Company.

When the meeting was opened to the public, Robert Pordon, an unsuccessful candidate in this year's school election, commented on the board's decision. "I fail to understand why the board voted away my right to these federal funds for the guidance area."

Dr. John Ingemi, superintendent of schools, told Pordon "We have the right to apply; it doesn't say we have the right to receive the money."

"The mayor has his own surplus to spend," retorted Pordon. "Why has the board elected not to seek these federal funds?"

"Because a majority of the board voted to do so," concluded Pasquale as he put an end to the discussion.

Make your house burglary proof

Burglary is a problem, but to avoid it happening to you, a number of things should be done! Whenever you leave your residence to spend an evening at the movies, or take off for a weekend of fun in the sun, housebreakers can and will move in if they're certain you've left. Burglars spend their daylight hours canvassing neighborhoods, looking for uncut lawns and over-stuffed mailboxes. They spend their evening hours looking for darkened hours — or lights that are left on too long. You can help your police department reduce burglaries in your city.

When making plans for an evening, weekend or extended vacation follow these tips offered by the Hawthorne Police Department.

1. Lock all doors and windows, using double cylinder locks on back doors in particular.
2. Arrange lamps and radios/TV in various parts of your home connected to Time-All automatic timers for use at customary hours to create a "lived in" appearance to the outside world.
3. Leave shades and blinds in normal positions.
4. Make sure that no deliveries of any kind (mail, newspaper, milk, etc.) will be made in your absence.
5. Arrange to have lawn mowed or snow shoveled in its respective season.
6. Store valuables in a safe deposit vault.
7. Close the garage door. (A garage can may have a particularly abandoned look.)
8. Alert the police and a close neighbor for unusual activity in your absence.
9. Arrange automatically-timed outdoor lighting for burglary prevention.
10. Refrain from notifying the newspapers of your whereabouts until your return.

Leesman receives use variance for office

Four variances were approved at the June 20 session of the Hawthorne Board of Adjustment. A use variance and site plan approved were granted to Franklin and Elsie Leesman for a building at 663 Lafayette Avenue. The structure, which is presently used as a two-family house, is to be converted to a B-1 use on a 35 by 100 foot lot. The variance was granted because the property does not meet the 50 by 150 foot requirements in the ordinance.

Leesman related that he intends to use the first floor with a total of 528 square feet for an office and the second floor as a one-bedroom apartment. Leesman presently conducts an insurance business, which would require three parking spaces plus one for the apartment. The motion to grant the general office use passed 6-0.

Site plan approval stipulated that access for traffic would be from Lafayette Avenue and exit onto Florence Avenue. All paved areas must slope to the street and not to adjoining properties. The third stipulation was that no cars be permitted to back out onto Lafayette Avenue.

A variance was granted to J. Daniel Contrini, 22 Braen Avenue, to construct an 18 foot by 11 foot 10 inch addition to his residence. The structure would be 9.14 feet from the sidewalk. The additional space would provide for a second bedroom on the first floor.

William and Brenda Dittfield, of 100 Seventh Avenue, received permission to construct a 10 by 22 foot addition to the southerly side of an existing building. The resulting structure would have 17 foot frontage instead of the 25 feet required by ordinance. The new area would be utilized for a larger living room and kitchen. The board voted 6-0 to grant the variance, but stipulated that stone be put in the driveway until such time as the applicant can afford to pave the area. No parking is to be permitted in front of the house.

Although some board members had reservations about granting approval to construct a bathroom in a garage, the vote was 5-1 in favor of Louis and Angelina Sabatello. The property is located at 66 Seventh Avenue and Mrs. Sabatello related that she has a crippled brother, who resides with them. She explained that with the bathroom in the garage, her brother would be able to get around outside in the warmer months. The room would be turned off in the cold weather.

Board president Albert La Barre asked Mrs. Sabatello whether she had given any consideration to the purchase of a chemical toilet. The applicant stated that she would prefer the plumbing and even offered to sign an affidavit not to ever convert the garage into living quarters.

Board member John Coughlin explained that such a stipulation would be difficult to enforce, if the property was ever sold. The board voted 5-1 in favor of the variance with Coughlin dissenting.

Two matters held over

The application of Horst Novak, 112 Lincoln Avenue, for permission to construct a two-story addition was held over, because the Bergen County Planning Board has not yet responded on this matter.

Mohawk Auto Body's case was deferred one more month because of the delay in receiving transcripts of previous hearings. Both cases will be heard on July 18. A special work session is scheduled for Monday, July 11.

Register mopeds like bikes

Chief V.J. Mangiafico has announced that any moped may be registered in the same manner as a bicycle in order to afford a means of identification in the event of thefts. Thefts of mopeds are increasing, the chief warned.

Bicycle or moped registration hours are 2 to 4 pm Wednesday at Police headquarters for the summer.

EDITORIAL

It's foolish to rob Peter to pay Paul . . .

The old expression "robbing Peter to pay Paul" aptly fits the discussion that occurred last week over the sum of $41,500 in federal funds. On the one hand, the Hawthorne School Board wants the funds to replace that amount which has been budgeted for the high school guidance area. What this group plans to do with the extra funds is rather nebulous, although some mention was made about Hawthorne's favorite charity — Washington School.

Washington School renovation is certainly a worthwhile endeavor, but we see no plans in the budget to show the board's sense of urgency for that project.

On the other hand, there is the Board of Commissioners requesting the waiver to keep full funding of the $765,000 for the library addition. This is a project that has had top priority on paper, but like most borough residents, we're sick of the delay that's been attached to this renovation.

It is for this reason that we feel the school board was justified in approving the waiver. Any disagreement between these two groups would have to be decided by another branch of the federal bureaucracy, which would further delay our hopes of completing the library.

To us taxpayers, it makes no difference where the $41,500 goes, because we foot the bill anyway. We do feel that the Board of Commissioners should have invited the school trustees to a meeting to discuss the matter. If the matter was handled properly, the entire discussion might never have evolved.

Today 7-7-77

We're not gamblers, but if we were, we'd find something lucky about today's date. The number 7-7-77 has to have some significance in a world where such a repetitive placement of lucky seven won't occur for another 100 years. We won't be around then and whoever heads this paper then will have no guarantee that the four sevens will pop up on the Press publication date.

In The Public Interest . . .

The Government is not protecting us from cancer

By Representative Andrew Maguire

Cancer is epidemic in the United States. The rate of lung cancer among American males is 14 times what it was 40 years ago. Overall, the cancer rate is rising so fast that it is estimated that one of every four people alive today will get cancer.

It doesn't have to be so. Scientists say as much as 90 per cent of all cancer is caused by our environment. Much of our rising cancer rate is due to byproducts of industrialization — automobile exhaust, factory emissions, and food additives — coupled with a great increase in smoking. We can cut our cancer rate: The cleaner we make our environment, the healthier we will be.

Sadly, progress has been slow. Our government's declared war on cancer is hamstrung by politics, bureaucratic stagnation, mis-directed money, and excessive influence by the regulated industries.

Two hundred years ago, an English doctor discovered the relationship between soot exposure among chimney sweeps and cancer. Today, American workers are still breathing — and dying from — coke oven emissions.

Eighty years ago, science discovered a link between dye manufacture and bladder cancer. As late as 1971, workers were still wading through dye vats.

And for 30 years we have known that asbestos causes cancer, but it is still in use.

The government is failing to do its job in protecting us. The National Cancer Institute has nearly a billion dollar budget but spends only a fraction identifying environmental problems. Only a few regulations have been issued each year to limit exposure to the thousands of cancer-causing chemicals in our factories.

And although we are exposed to 35,000 different pesticides, less than half of the active ingredients have been tested and proved safe. A thousand new chemicals enter the market each year showing that our ability to control possible dangers is easily overwhelmed by our capacity to create them.

Last year Congress took an important step when it passed the Toxic Substances Control Act. It requires that chemicals be tested before they are marketed.

But the Act will only work if it is strictly enforced. Congress is under increasing pressure to relax pollution standards. The chemical industry wants a weak Environmental Protection Agency. The automobile industry says it can't produce clean cars fast enough. And food processors want to eliminate the Delaney clause — the law which keeps cancer-causing agents out of our food. Industry's voice is heard.

It is time that those who are not represented by powerful lobbies in Washington speak out in Congress and the White House in favor of the vigorous enforcement of existing laws. We can — we must — have a healthy environment in which our children can enjoy the fruits of our industry.

Federal loan for more jobs

Chairman Robert A. Roe (D-8th Dist.-N.J.) of the House Subcommittee on Economic Development, announced that the Economic Development Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, has approved loans totaling $2,040,000 to help establish a textile printing firm and reestablish 103 jobs in Passaic County, New Jersey.

In making the announcement, Congressman Roe stated, "The loans were approved for the ATP Processors, Ltd., of Paterson. They will be used to purchase machinery and equipment of a former textile printing firm and for working capital."

"ATP Processors, Ltd., plans to print, dye and finish fabrics for women's wear, sportswear, men's shirts and housewares."

"The firm, which will occupy nine buildings in the Society of Useful Manufacturers Industrial Tract at Paterson, anticipates rehiring 103 workers of the former firm."

"The Economic Development Administration approved the loans in conjunction with the goals of the overall economic development program of Passaic County to encourage private industry to locate in the area and create jobs. Local officials anticipate that ATP Processors, Ltd., will help service industries in the area remain in business and serve as an inducement to encourage other firms to locate in Paterson."

Congressman Roe called attention to the fact that included in the EDA assistance is a $1,650,000 working capital loan repayable in 10 years at a 7 1/2 per cent annual rate of interest.

"A second EDA loan of $390,000 will be used to purchase machinery and equipment and is repayable in 10 years at a 7 1/2 per cent annual rate of interest. The firm has received a $184,000 loan from the Chemical Bank of New York, a $34,000 loan from the Paterson Regional Development Corporation and will provide $68,000 in equity funds to complete the $676,000 total cost of acquiring the fixed assets," he added.

Drum Corps Grand Prix Saturday night

The Caballeros display their world-famous championship form.

A crowd of 8,500 fans is expected to be on hand this Saturday night, when the Hawthorne Caballeros-Muchachos present their 13th annual "Drum Corps Grand Prix" in Clifton Stadium.

The Grand Prix is hailed as one of the best, if not the tops (on an equal par with the famous Barnum Festival), as all of the top

Bob Beattie - cop, Cab, commander

By Ron Phillips
Grand Prix Publicity Director

As the famous Hawthorne Caballeros get ready to "go off the line" on Saturday night Bob Beattie is one of the front section men (carrying a sabre). Beattie happens to have the initial "C" all over the place. He's a Hawthorne cop, commander of American Legion Post 199 and, most of all, a Caballero.

Besides these jobs, he is a member of the committee which is planning to make the 13th annual Drum Corps Grand Prix a huge success.

Beattie, 34, has the energy of a teenager just getting his second wind. He never complains and in the short time that I have known him, I foresee the Passaic County Legion Home that he now commands reaching high points. Bob has set a record for marching. He is the first member of the Caballeros who has reigned as commander of Post 199.

"I have enjoyed my job with the police department as well as having found the spare time to also be a part of such a great organization as the Caballeros," says the 10-year member of the local force.

"I love to go camping but with such a full schedule it is just impossible," Beattie said. He has a Silver Life Membership in PBA Local 200, of which he was president for three years. It also marked the first time ever that a Hawthorne patrolman (active) received this kind of an award.

Beattie also finds some time to belong to the William B. Mawhinney Ambulance Corps and the Hawthorne Masonic Lodge 212 F.A.M. Commander Beattie, who started out as an assistant to veteran Joe Campos doing many "behind the scenes" chores, is in his second session with the front section.

senior drum and bugles corps in the country will be "off the line" in competition. The show begins at 7:45 pm.

"It's just fantastic the way ticket requests have come in over the past three weeks," said Bob Murray. He's the man who has the thankless job of being a business manager and chairman of the show.

The hard working Caballeros executive said that mail has come in from as far as Quebec, Ottawa and Hamilton, Ont., Canada.

Ticket orders from New York State, Baltimore, Philly, Virginia, Ohio, Massachusetts, Illinois have also managed to find their way to the Caballeros-Muchachos P.O. Box 234.

Although the DCA World Champion Caballeros will not be in the show competing, they will put on an exhibition along with the Muchachos who hope to surprise everybody when they do go into DCI competition shortly.

The DCA (Drum Corps Associates) senior drum and bugle corps competing "off the line" for the first place William Fowler Memorial Trophy are: Rochester, (N.Y.) Crusaders; Connecticut Hurricanes; Baltimore Yankee Rebels; Reading, (Pa.) Buccaneers; New York Skyliners and the Long Island Sunrises. The Sunrises, led by drum major Tom Hart, are the defending champions.

The only three-times winner in the field is Connecticut's Hurricanes. The Skyliners, Crusaders, Bucs are two-time kingpins.

Corps had a busy holiday weekend

The holiday weekend was a busy one for the Hawthorne Caballeros. On July 2, the corps competed in the Barnum Festival Bridgeport, Ct. On Sunday, the Cabs, along with four other groups, competed in an exhibition at Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City.

Three events filled their July 4 holiday. The Cabs marched in a parade in Oradell, another in Emerson and in the evening gave an exhibition at the fireworks display in Clifton and Bloomfield.

In the competition held at Madison Square Garden June 24, the Caballeros lost to the Trophies to be awarded at the Grand Prix include: James Costello, Sr. Memorial to the outstanding drum major; Robert George Memorial for high horns, named in honoring the late Muchachos member.

The Dominic Rulka Memorial Trophy will be presented to the top drum line. The top general effect score will see for the first time the David Rinaldo Memorial Award given out. Rinaldo was a member of the Muchachos who was killed in a Rt. 80 accident last year.

The theme from "Rocky" will be performed by the Yankee Rebels. The Sunrises concert special oldie is "Old Man River" while the Skyliners counter with many top oldtime Broadway show hits including "Slaughter on 10th Avenue" and "Give My Regards to Broadway." All of the competing units have put together outstanding shows for the 77 season.

Tickets are on sale at The Ticket Box, 553 Lexington Avenue in Clifton. Other outlets include George's Market, 368 Getty Avenue, Paterson; Universal Greeting Cards, 972 Main Street, Paterson; Hawthorne Deli, 201 Diamond Bridge Avenue; Thatcher's Deli, 440 Lafayette Avenue, Hawthorne; Clifton Music Centre, 1135 Main Avenue; and Prekness Florist, 286 Union Avenue, Paterson.

Seats for this year's Grand Prix are scaled at $4.50 each on the concert side. General admission is $2.50, while children under-12 get in for $1.50.

Two custodians retiring

Larry Alcaro at work in the high school.

Two of the Hawthorne School System's custodians will retire on July 31. Larry Alcaro, head custodian at Hawthorne High School and Gabe Barone, head custodian at the Washington School, have been employed for 19 and 15 years respectively. A resolution honoring both of them for their dedication and loyalty was passed by the school board of June 14.

Larry has watched the students grow up and now observes their children. "Lifestyles have changed. There are many differences in today's high school student body compared to 20 years ago," he stated.

Since 1974, Mr. Alcaro has contributed to scholarships awards for students at the high school. He has also contributed nearly all of his trophies and medals to local track stars.

Larry won his first gold medal in 1926, while attending school in Paterson. Upon graduation he ran for the Trojan Athletic Club, St. Bon's, Duffy and Mc Cutcheon, Legion Teams and the YMCA. In 1929, he set the YMCA indoor track record for the 60 and 75 yard dashes. In the New Jersey AALL, he won the 440 yard dash and ran the 100 yard dash in 10.5 seconds. In 1931, he took four place in the 100 yard dash in which Eddie Tolan was the winner. (Mr. Tolan later broke the world record at 10.3 seconds.)

The only track awards he has retained are the gold medal track shoe with a diamond and a silver shoe with a sapphire.

Gabe Barone was honored by the Washington School PTO on June 3. The group presented him with a plaque and a gift. His family, including his wife, Jennie, Mr. and Mrs. M. Turco, his daughter and son-in-law, and some of Mr. Barone's brothers and sisters attended.

I am often asked "How is the best way to get started in the local rock scene and build up to the big time?" My answer is always the same. Find a professional manager. Getting the proper manager can be much like looking for a wife because you must get along and work together. In the last seven years of dealing with managers of New Jersey groups, I am happy to report almost all are total idiots! There are very few exceptions. By far the best of William P. Malone Artist Management. However, because he's so good, he is very busy and usually unable to take on small projects. Currently, Malone handles T. Roth and Another Pretty Face and Pegasus, two of the most promising groups in New Jersey. We were swamped with requests for autographs of Farrah Fawcett-Majors. There are still a few left. Send $1.00 for each autograph to: Michael Levine's Spotlites, 201 Cross Street, Fort Lee, N.J. 07024. No more than five per person. . . . There is a new song on Barbara Streisand's latest album Superman called "Don't believe what you read" about a L.A. magazine that has run several untrue stories about her and her live-in lover, Jon Peters. That is her way of getting even. . . . Fernwood 2-Night, the first totally fictional talk/variety show on television, will premiere July 4 at 11 pm on Channel 5 taking over for Mary Hartman. It will be hosted by Martin Mull as Earth Gimble (identical twin of Fernwood's late resident wife beater, Garth Gimble). . . . The New York Times as of July 1 will limit pornographic film advertisement in their newspaper severely. The times currently grosses about $750,000.00 a year on porno advertising. . . . The five top grossing films in the country this week are Star Wars, Roller Coaster (Yeechi) Annie Hall, Black Sunday, & Rocky. . . . The reviewers did the same thing that Reagan does so well, after they took a look at the new Exorcist II-The Heretic/Vorited. . . . Good reviews for the Deep. . . . Spotlites is offering a $5,000 reward to anyone finding that damn dog Benji and making sure that he doesn't make another film. . . . For those of you who have missed the listing of the shows for Central Park this summer, some of the highlights include 7/6 Manhattan Transfer, 7/29 Robert Klein, 7/30 Hall & Oates, 8/13 Phoebe Snow, 8/17 Peter Allen, 8/24 Chuck Mangione, 8/26 Melanie. The series is sponsored by Dr. Pepper this year. . . . One of the most interesting new T-shirts out now are called Schwable's. What they are in nothing more than a shirt with a picture of a famous gangster such as John Dillinger with a real bullet hole through the shirt. Each shirt is shot at close range with a 1911 colt 45 (a favorite of outlaws). They can be purchased from Schwable Enterprises, 1716 Swann St., N.W., Washington, DC. 20009. Isn't it amazing what you can learn by reading Spotlites. . . . Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley recently declared an official Herb Alpert Day in L.A. Alpert is the brains behind A&M in addition to his trumpet playing. . . . Due to popular demand, we are having another fill in the blank giveaway. The special prize will be two posters of Elton John & Alice Cooper that are really beautiful. To enter fill in the blank "If I ever brought Kiss over to my house for dinner, my parents would". Winners will be judged on outrageousness. Sent to: Spotlites, 201 Cross St. Fort Lee, NJ.

"Oklahoma" begins July 12 at Playhouse on the Mall

"Oklahoma!" the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical classic, will star Christine Andreas and David-James Carroll at the Playhouse on the Mall, Bergen Mall, Paramus, Tuesday, July 12, through Sunday, July 17.

This gloriously romantic tale of two sets of frontier sweethearts, is based on playwright Lynn Riggs' memories of his Oklahoma childhood when the prairie state was still the Indian Territory. He turned them into the play "Green Grow the Lilacs" in 1931. In 1943 the musical version by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II opened in New York, and the rest is history. "Oklahoma!" the first musical to realistically portray plain folks and to integrate dance and music into the story, revolutionized the American musical theatre. It ran five years in New York, 10 years on national tour, and since has been enjoyed by enthusiastic audiences around the world.

"Oklahoma!" also marked the beginning of an enormously fruitful collaboration between Rodgers and Hammerstein. During this time they created nine of America's greatest musicals including such giants as "Carousel", "South Pacific" and "The King and I".

None have been more endearing — or enduring — than "Oklahoma!" Its songs are as familiar to old friends, "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning", "The Surrey With the Fringe on Top", "People Will Say We're in Love", and "Oklahoma!" sound as fresh and sparkling today as they did on the first opening night. Its story is timely and simple and sunny, the tale of two prairie farm girls being wooed by two cowboys, despite the rivalry of two other men, an itinerant peddler and an ill-tempered hired man.

Christine Andreas will play Laurie, the pretty girl who fears that "People Will Think We're in Love". Ms. Andreas most recently appeared on Broadway in the Twentieth Anniversary production of "My Fair Lady" as Eliza Doolittle opposite one of England's leading Shakespearean actors, Ian Richardson.

Prior to this, she blundered her way onto the Broadway stage as Nancy in "Angel Street", and joined Sammy Cahn in his one-man show "Words and Music".

Outside of New York, Ms. Andreas toured nationally as Hodel in "Fiddler on the Roof" and has starred in major stock productions across the country including "Once Upon a Matress", "Promises, Promises", "Good News", "Fantasticks" and "Guys and Dolls".

David-James Carroll in the part of Curley, has most recently starred in the title role of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Television viewers will know him from the CBS-TV series, "Ball Four".

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Carroll has appeared in a variety of roles including Don Armado in "Love's Labour's Lost", Algernon in "The Importance of Being Earnest", and Nanki-poo in "The Mikado".

Jeff Kievit going on 5-country tour

Jeff Kievit of 273 Rea Avenue Extension, Hawthorne, a member of the University of Miami's Concert Jazz Band, will participate in the 11th Annual Montreux (Switzerland) International Jazz Festival July 11-18. From Switzerland, the 20-member band will go on a five-country tour of the Middle East as a part of the U.S. State Department's cultural exchange program.

Kievit, 23, is a trumpeter in the band. Winners of the intercollegiate division at the 10th Festival last year, the UM Concert Jazz Band was invited to appear as a featured attraction at the Festival this year along with some of the biggest professional names on the American jazz scene. Highlight of the group's Montreux residency will be an appearance with Dave Brubeck.

Following their stay in Switzerland, they will continue on a three-week trip to Nicosia, Cyprus; Damascus, Syria; Amman, Jordan; Cairo, Egypt, and Tunis, Tunisia.

Andy Ebneht's pitching, combined with the hitting of teammates Dave Pine, Bob Nolan, and Bill Marotta gave the Hawthorne Chevies an 11-1 victory over GMC in the first game of the championship series in the Junior Development Baseball League.

Ebneht threw a five-hitter, Pine powered a bases loaded triple, while Nolan and Marotta clipped in two hits apiece. The Chevies need one more victory to take the title.

Mike O'Hagen was the starter and loser for the GMC team.

The Chevies attained the finals with a 6-1 victory over the Boys' Club. Ebneht pitched another fine game for the winners. Had the Chevies lost this contest they would have been tied with the Greens for the American Division title and a playoff would have been needed to determine the division crown.

The Greens will now play the Hawthorne Lions for the third place overall trophy. The Lions and Five and Ten ended the regular season with equal records, but the Lions won a playoff game, 14-8, and were awarded with second place honors in the National Division and the right to play the Greens.

Against the Five and Ten, the Lions scored nine runs in the sixth and seventh innings to storm back from an 8-5 deficit. Tony Giambra went four for four including a bases loaded triple for the Lions. Dino Batista added some big hits and Mike Post collected the pitching victory.

After losing an earlier contest last week to Five and Ten, the Lions needed a win over GMC in order to tie the Five and Ten. The first game ended in a 6-6 tie, the second finished at 7-7. Finally the Lions won a 10-9 squeaker in the third game. Dino Batista, after making a catch in center field, threw out GMC's potential tying run which was coming home from third in the seventh inning to insure his team the victory.

Five and Ten had been red hot, defeating both the Lions and the Mohawks, before losing to the former in the playoff game for second place. Joe

Two runs in the seventh inning enabled the Five and Ten to defeat the Mohawks 4-2. Battaglia led the winners with two hits while Renny Keyser collected two hits for the Mohawks. Mike Pasquale and Kevin Hanrahan had the only other hits for the Mohawks off winning Five and Ten pitcher Chris Ellerbrook.

Also held over this past weekend was Ringers Tournament. Taking top honors in this event was Art Kuiper with net 53. Second place went to Charley Buttery with net 55. Joe Binkert, Andy Devlin and Steve Murray were tied for third with net 56. Fourth place went to Mike Priozzi, Bill Lundgren and John Curry with net 57.

John DeBel receives patent for invention

John DeBel, 570 Lafayette Avenue, has designed a back scrubber that will allow a bather to scrub his or her entire back in one motion, and is less tiring than conventional back scrubbers. Mr. DeBel is now seeking a manufacturer for his device and has a demonstration model. He is being assisted by the Ray-

The Grapevine

By Joe Friedman

There is a flourishing wine industry in Australia. Very little of it comes to the U.S. and Canada, though, because the Australians are also flourishing wine drinkers — per capita consumption is double that in the U.S.

Wine has been made in Australia almost as long as in the U.S. The ship that brought the first permanent settlers in 1788 also carried 20,000 grape cuttings.

The seasons are reversed in that below-the-equator land; there the grape-picking begins in autumnal February.

Locations are reversed, too; only the cooler South is really suited to wine production, and it is the same parallel as Santa Barbara, California. The vintners may not add cane sugar to their wine, but more acid is sometimes necessary.

Popular red wines from Australia are Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz — related to our own Petite Sirah. The major white wines made are Semillon and Riesling.

mond Lee Organization and has also been awarded a U.S. Patent for the invention.

Mr. DeBel's back scrubber and massager is a large trapezoid-shaped sponge that is mounted on a rod with straps at its ends. By manipulating the straps, a bather can easily scrub his or her back with either an up and down or back and forth motion.

According to Raymond Lee, founder president of the Raymond Lee Organization,

"Almost everyone has invented something at one time or another, usually in connection with his home, hobby or occupation. We believe there are many ideas which could be of interest to industry if their inventors would come forward."

Says Lee, "Our company helps independent inventors throughout the U.S. and Canada with the commercial development and presentation of their ideas to industry."

PRICE TEN CENTS

Four-year-old Jamie Gillesheimer decided to try his hand at driving Daddy's truck late Tuesday afternoon and went on a dangerous, if abbreviated, ride. According to his mother, Mrs. James Gillesheimer, of 774 Goffle Road, the pre-schooler got into the truck and somehow released the hand brake. Jamie's route was backwards down the driveway, which has a sharp incline leading into the busy county road.

The vehicle flew across Goffle at the height of rush-hour traffic, avoiding contact with any other vehicle and went down the sloping bank of the Goffle Brook landing in the water at the base of a footbridge near Florence Avenue.

The youngster escaped injury and was rescued from the blue pick-up by Passaic County Park Patrolmen Barry Bogert and James Iandoli, Jr., who were patrolling the area at the time and spotted the vehicle rolling across the roadway.

After returning Jamie to his parents, the county officers parked their police car at the side of the road and a Hawthorne patrol car was sent to assist as they awaited the arrival of a tow truck.

The rescuing vehicle arrived in the height of a teeming downpour. The tow truck was positioned on Goffle Road and a winch was used to crank the flooded vehicle out of the water.

Owner James Gillesheimer assisted the tow truck operator who had the vehicle on land in a short time. The only damage to the vehicle was to a tire and Mr. Gillesheimer reports that it started right up after the incident.

Teacher appointment questioned

by Nora Muchanick

The appointment of Mrs. Robin Craig as foreign language teacher at Hawthorne High School was questioned at the July 12 meeting of the Hawthorne Board of Education. Norman Smith noted two "incompletes" in Mrs. Craig's record. Dr. John Ingemi answered saying, "Mrs. Craig is completing those credits at present. I have been in touch with her instructors and they tell me she is doing well and will receive them shortly. I might add that she already has her teacher's certification."

During the public session, Mrs. Nan Doran raised the subject of the appointment again. "We are told," she said, "that we hire the best qualified teachers for the job. Is this the best qualified?" Dr. Ingemi explained, "We contacted all the area colleges and she is the best person we were able to recruit from the applications we received. This does not mean she is a second rate teacher; she meets all our requirements."

Mr. Raso of the board added that Mrs. Craig went to college for 5 years, pursuing a double major. Mrs. Craig's appointment was passed 6-3 with Smith, Frank Matthews and Frank Petrucci dissenting.

A discussion developed over the motion to delegate a person in charge in the absence of the Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Smith questioned the need for such a move. Mr. Pasquale replied that "it is only a designation of command in the superintendent's absence."

Dr. Ingemi noted that he plans no long absences other than his forthcoming vacation. The motion was unanimously approved to designate the high school principal as the person in charge during Ingemi's absence.

In other matters, the board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Carol Hornstein, Mrs. Nancy Schoenberg and Mrs. Judith Doan. Mrs. Hornstein, a member of the child study team, has accepted a new position outside the district. Mrs. Schoenberg will relocate in the Washington, D.C. area.

Approval for home instruction was granted to two students, indicated only as E.L. and C.H., because their orthopedic handicaps prevented both from attending the regular in-school program.

Miss Denise Schafer was granted authorization of name change for all official school records by the board. She requested they be changed to Denise S. Ruel following her marriage on July 16.

The board unanimously approved the renewal of contracts for the 1977-78 school year for the school secretarial personnel.

The appointment of the summer school staff was also approved. The 21 teachers involved in the program will be paid at a rate of $7.00 per hour. During the public session Mrs. Nan Doran questioned whether or not the summer school teachers were certified. Dr. Ingemi stated that they are.

The following new appointments were made for the 77-78 coaching staff: Alexander Greenwood, assistant football coach; Rolf Youngquist, assistant basketball coach; Robert Marino,

State surveying for stop signs

The State Department of Transportation is making a survey to determine whether stop signs are needed on Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Avenues between Genevieve and Florence Avenues. This report was made by Mayor Louis Bay, who is the Commissioner of Public Safety, at the July 6 meeting of the governing body.

Mayor Bay seized the opportunity to mention that two accidents had occurred in the area within one half hour on June 22. "I assure the residents of that neighborhood that this issue is being looked into very seriously. Yet there is no substitute for good common sense on the part of drivers and in this case, the accident occurred with an unlicensed driver in a stolen car."

The state will recommend whether or not stop signs are needed. According to the Uniform Traffic Code Manual, published by the U.S. Department of Transportation, a stop sign is warranted at an intersection where one or more of the following conditions exist:

- 1- intersection of a less important road with a main road, where the normal right-of-way rule is unduly hazardous;
 - 2- a street entering a through-highway or street;
 - 3- unsignalized intersection in a signalized area;
 - 4- other intersection where a combination of high speed, restrictive view and a serious accident record indicates a need.
- A review of the accident record at that area shows that there have been eight mishaps in the past two years.

Had urge to break windows:

Rock thrower apprehended

A 17-year-old Hawthorne High School student was arrested Saturday and charged with breaking a rash of windows in various borough stores. Lieutenant George Gordon apprehended the teenager, after he observed the youth throw a stone from a car through the plate glass window of Osur's Market, 720 Lafayette Avenue. There was a large supply of stones in the youth's car when arrested, according to the police.

The juvenile was taken to police headquarters where Gordon and Detective Andrew Turco questioned the youth in the presence of his parents.

He was also charged with breaking 12 windows on March 6, after he admitted this to police. A charge of possession of beer by a juvenile in a vehicle was also made. An 18-year-old passenger in the vehicle when the incidents occurred was found not to be involved in any of the damages.

According to police, the suspect could give no valid reason for this actions. "He had an urge to do it", was all they could theorize. Damage was estimated to be in the thousands.

Bids awarded for Valley Street, question raised over procedure

"Is there anyone who has submitted a bid, but has not heard his name read?" ... these words are heard every time a governing body accepts formal quotes on public projects. At last week's meeting of the Board of Commissioners, a question was raised over whether a bid can be received after this phrase is read.

The time for bidding was opened and the clerk read the names of two bidders, who had submitted forms: J. Della Penna Bldg. Corp. of Pompton Lakes and Al Pomante and Sons, West Paterson. After the mayor asked whether anyone had submitted a bid but had not heard his name read, a young man stepped to the front of the room with an envelope in his hand, presumably to hand in a bid.

Mayor Bay asked him why he had not come forward when bids were received. The man answered "Because I did not want to bid if there was only one other bid."

"Why should that influence you?" asked the mayor. "What difference does it make if there are five bids or 15?"

"Our company is very cautious," answered the prospective bidder, who related that he was the vice president of Sanitary Construction Co., a firm that has been in existence since 1906. The mayor asked the attorney whether he had to accept the bid, then told the man, "I'll give you a choice. I've seen contractors come to meetings with two bids—a high one and a low one and wait to see who is bidding before they decide which one to turn in."

"I assure you that this is not the case," said the unidentified company official. Then he told the mayor that he would decline to bid.

"This is of your own choice," said the mayor.

"Yes," replied the contractor, who then left the meeting.

When bids were opened, the results were: J. Della Penna $28,667 and Al Pomante, $22,068.25. The quotations were referred to the borough engineer who recommended that the bid be awarded to Pomante. The project calls for reconstruction of roadway pavement and drainage facilities on the dead-end street that is located off Braen Avenue.

BOROUGH BITS

Welfare director re-appointed

Joan L. Hughes has been re-appointed to the position of welfare director of the Borough of Hawthorne for a period of five years as of July 1, 1977. Her appointment was made by the Local Assistance Board.

Water tank bids

Public Works Commissioner Harold Floyd reported that bids for the one-million gallon water tank to be constructed on the Blasberg Tract will be received on August 17. Specifications include the water tank and a booster station. The clerk was authorized to advertise for bids.

Law suits pending

In a communication from the borough attorney, the Board of Commissioners learned that a response has been prepared to the petition for certification in the Molnar case. Molnar is seeking to have a case certified with the N.J. Supreme Court, in the borough's re-zoning over the Dater tract, the proposed site of an apartment complex.

Ordinance 1269 passed

An ordinance authorizing improvements to Valley Street in the amount of $29,000 passed final reading on July 6.

Permit not "legible"

A stream encroachment permit was received from the firm of Barbieri and Pluymer on behalf of Viceroy Hills. Mayor Bay entertained a motion to acknowledge the existence of a permit, but asked the clerk to return the document "because it is not legible." "Let's get one we can read," said the mayor.

The August 9 meeting has been changed to August 23, due to vacation schedules.

Where to park at boro hall?

Parking spaces at the Hawthorne Municipal Building are disappearing at a rapid rate. It seems strange that a borough resident cannot drive to the borough hall and find a place to park in order to transact business with his local government.

Yesterday at 10:30 am, there was not a single space open in the lot, nor were there any in the parking strip along the railroad tracks on either side of Warburton Avenue or at any other street space.

We observed a school principal park his car across the street at a factory on Grand Avenue and one ambulance corps volunteer leave his vehicle in a space not officially designed as a parking slot, in order to answer an emergency.

The only recourse is to park immediately behind another vehicle, especially if you know the owner and feel sure about his job keeping him in the building most of the day. We can't help but wonder why higher gas prices and increased automobile costs are having little impact here in our borough. We also fail to see how a municipal building can be accessible to the public if there's no place to park.

Sense In The Sun

Summer is a time for relaxing in the sun. It's enjoyable and, in moderation, beneficial. But, like most good things in life, it can be overdone. Too much exposure to the sun can be harmful, even fatal.

Over-exposure to the sun can cause skin cancer, the most common form of all cancers. The American Cancer Society estimates that 300,000 cases of skin cancer appear in the United States each year. Some 5,000 Americans die of skin cancer annually.

Fortunately, skin cancer is among the most curable forms of the disease. When caught early, 95% of superficial skin cancers can be cured. It is foolhardy, nevertheless, to risk getting cancer in the first place. It can be avoided by taking these simple precautions:

Avoid, or limit, exposure between 11 am and 2 pm.

Wear a broad-brimmed hat and keep your arms covered.

Use medically-approved creams and sun-screening lotions.

Individuals vary in the amount of sun they can tolerate. But no one can be sure of not getting cancer. That is why moderation is the key for everyone.

Clarification needed about 'fender-bender'

Dear Mr. Missonellie:

As parents of children who live on the corner of Eighth Avenue and Florence we think people should have an accurate account of the serious accident which occurred by our house on June 22. Believe me, it was not just a "fender bender." Vehicle 1 was coming south on Eighth Avenue and Vehicle 2 was coming west on Florence. Neither of them hesitated or slowed down, obviously, so No. 1 hit No. 2 which was operated by a juvenile. Vehicle 1 came to a stop by the curb in front of our house facing North. Vehicle 2, I assume out of control, came on our lawn and proceeded down the side of the house on the lawn for about 60 feet then hit the oak tree in our backyard. My daughter, who is 5 years old, had her big wheel near the end of the driveway and Vehicle 2, after hitting the oak tree, hit her big wheel and sent it out into the street spinning like a top. Needless to say, God must have been with the children because they usually are in that area playing.

After Vehicle 2 hit the tree and came to a stop in our driveway the two people in the car jumped out on the driver's side, the passengers side was all damaged, and proceeded to leave the scene of the accident. Mr. Metzler, who is our neighbor, asked them where they were going and they ignored him and fled down Seventh Avenue to Utter. Mr. Metzler got into his car and went after them. They were caught down on Fifth Avenue, I think.

My daughter was in the backyard at the time, but thank God she did not get hurt. Emotionally she has been quite upset and so are we, along with all our neighbors. It was just awful.

We have gone to the town several times in regard to stop signs but they seem to take it very lightly. This accident was very serious and could have been tragic if children were in the area. I just hope the town officials don't wait until we have a fatality before they decide that it is serious enough to do something about. We pay taxes in this town so I should think we could get some stop signs. It seems rather strange that up on Tenth Avenue and Florence Avenue that they have a stop sign and both of those streets are dead ends. I guess you have to know someone to get anything in this town.

What we really need on our corner is a guard rail, so that the cars do not come up and hit the children or our house.

As a taxpayer in the town of Hawthorne I think Mayor Bay should be more concerned with the problems of his people. That is what he is there for. Installation of a guard rail on our corner and stop signs on the side of streets should begin immediately to ensure the safety of our children.

We sure hope that an accurate account of this terrible accident will be printed so that people can know the truth.

Thank you for being concerned.

Sincerely,

Dave and Betty Kearns

I am writing on behalf of the Woman's Club of Hawthorne to thank you very sincerely for publishing in your fine paper all of the copy and pictures sent in to you during the past club year. Without your help our annual scholarship card party could not have been so successful. Ice cream party held at Lincoln

The Lincoln Home and School Group recently concluded its 1976-77 school year activities with an ice cream party for the entire school population on the last day of classes. Mrs. Helen Pasquale, president, expressed thanks to everyone connected with the home and school group for its excellent support and cooperation throughout the past year. The willingness and eager support of the parents, teachers, staff and students have made it possible for the P.T.O. to be able to provide over two thousand dollars worth of materials and events as their annual gift to the school for the year.

Plans are already underway for the second annual Christmas Boutique to be chaired by Mrs. Lynn Garthwaite. Anyone wishing to donate time, handwork or materials may do so throughout the summer months by contacting Mrs. Garthwaite or Mrs. Pasquale, as numerous items are needed to supply the demand of student shoppers.

Chevies win JD playoff

By Steve Nuver

Manager Joe Scarmazzo and Coach Ken David must be doing something right.

Their Hawthorne Chevies team of the American Division won the 1977 junior development baseball championship playoff, its fourth in the last five years, with an 8-2 triumph over the National Division representative GMC. The Chevies had defeated GMC in the first game of the series 11-1.

Andy Ebneth pitched another fine game for the Chevies. He also provided key hitting, along with teammates Bill Marotta and Bob Bertollo. The latter tripled with two men on to help break the game open. GMC Manager Paul Merlino attributed his team's loss to poor hitting.

The St. Anthony Greens defeated the Hawthorne Lions 7-5 in a playoff game for third place overall. Jim Soder collected the mound victory, with relief help from Steve Gibbons. Glen Cesa led the Greens' hitting attack. Carmine Batista was the starting and losing pitcher for the Lions.

The two clubs had originally played to a 2-2 tie in a nine-inning game for third place honors.

Jersey Jaycees welcome Jets

The Jets are heading for New Jersey and a mini season at the Meadowlands and the New Jersey Jaycees are welcoming them. The two organizations have joined forces to introduce the Jets to New Jersey for their three games to be played this year at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands.

Jersey's Jaycees will be the principal agent in New Jersey to sell tickets for the Jets' preseason games against the Philadelphia Eagles, Friday night, August 5 and the Pittsburgh Steelers, Saturday night, August 20 and for the first regular season home game against the Baltimore Colts, Sunday afternoon, September 25.

The Jaycees have come up with a unique package offering fans four different plans. Fans may purchase any of the two pre-season games with a guaranteed seat to the Colts game.

The packages work like this:

- J1 - $18.00 — Aug. 5 - Jets vs. Eagles
Sept. 25 - Jets vs. Colts
- J2 - $18.00 — Aug. 20 - Jets vs. Steelers
Sept. 25 - Jets vs. Colts
- J3 - $18.00 — Aug. 5 - Jets vs. Eagles
Aug. 20 - Jets vs. Steelers
- J4 - $27.00 — Aug. 5 - Jets vs. Eagles
Aug. 20 - Jets vs. Steelers
Sept. 25 - Jets vs. Colts

The Jersey Jaycees, who are part of an international organization, have joined with the Jets with the idea of boosting New Jersey and presenting a forward image of the Garden State.

One of the biggest projects of the Jersey Jaycees is the running of a 185-acre camp for the mentally retarded in the Pocono Mountains. Other community projects are health clinics, criminal justice, energy and conservation, governmental affairs, free enterprises system, operating a blood bank, toys for tots and library support. To order your tickets through the Jaycees, send a check or money order along with the plan you want to.

Tennis group organizing

A group of civic-minded residents met this weekend with the intention of forming a Hawthorne Tennis Association. The steering committee, which is headed by John Morrone, includes Patty Hanratty, Don Prouse, Judy Frederick, Joseph Scarmazzo, Jack Farrell, Dennis Orichio and Ron Fredericks.

The purpose of this tennis association would be to promote an all-year tennis program in Hawthorne. One of the aims is to create a "borough tennis team," which could play in inter-town competition. Another is to volunteer their time to teach basic skills to school-age children in the Hawthorne schools.

A public meeting will be held in the near future. Interested residents are urged to read The Press regarding future announcements.

NOT WORTH REPEATING

Do you know what the country needs today? A seven-cent nickel! If it works out, next year we could have an eight-cent nickel. You could go to the newsstand, buy a three-cent paper and get the same nickel back again. One nickel carefully used would last a family a lifetime.

Elks are the midget league champions

By Rich Ambrose

The Elks became the 1977 Midget Division Champions by defeating Red Duck in the third and final game of their best two out of three playoff, 6-4.

During the regular season the Elks compiled a 16-2 record while winning the White Division, and Red Duck came out on top in the Blue Division with a 14-4 record.

Red Duck won the opening game of the playoff series 4-0 behind the outstanding pitching of Ken Iannacone and Steve Gotskowski. Saturday night the Elks came right back to win a hotly-contested second game, 13-12, in extra innings. This set the stage for the climatic third game.

The Elks got on the scoreboard right away in the top of the first inning by scoring a run on an error and three walks to take a 1-0 lead. Meanwhile pitcher Paul Rainey was throwing nothing but smoke at the Red Duck batters. In the first inning, Kenny Iannacone hit a shot over the second baseman's head, advancing Frank La Pica to third, but the Ducks failed to score.

In the second inning, neither team scored as Rainey struck out two Duck batters and Iannacone struck out two Elks.

The third inning was the big one for the Elks. Doug Falone was safe on first as the ball fell between the pitcher and the second baseman.

Colin Gold was awarded first base, after being hit by a pitch, walking a run and Teddy "Doc" Opietbeck drew a base on balls, walking in another run. Paul Rainey hit a single to third base, driving in the third run.

The Red Duck team got the bases loaded on walks, but were still scoreless at the end of the third. The score at the halfway mark was 4-0.

In the bottom of the fourth Red Duck came to life. With runners on second and third and nobody out Jeff Vanderhook cut the score in half with a single to right. One out later Ken Iannacone singled to put two runners on base once again. Ron Gorlich followed with a base hit to tie up the ballgame, 4-4.

The Elks went ahead for good in the top of the fifth when they scratched their way for a run on two walks a ground out, and an error. Red Duck again got bases loaded, but was unable to score.

An insurance run was added in the top of the sixth for Elks on an RBI by Opietbeck to put them ahead 6-4. Nazzaro came home after he had hit a single. For the third time, Red Duck had bases loaded, but three strike outs in the bottom of the sixth finished off the championship contest.

A jubilant Elks team rejoices after Monday night's victory over Red Duck. The winners became the midget league champions in a best of three playoff.

Mohawk wins championship

By Steve Nuiver

They lost in 1975 to Mele's. They lost in 1976 to Kiwanis. But whoever philosophized that all things come in threes should have been around to see the L.I. League Championship playoffs this year.

After two consecutive seasons of defeat in the final round, the Mohawk A.C. won the 1977 L.I. League Championship, sweeping Maitland Real Estate in two straight games by scores of 20-3 and 6-5.

The championship was still in doubt until the sixth and final inning of the second game. In the bottom of that inning, with the score deadlocked at 5-5, Mohawks' Rich Tolomeo singled down the leftfield line and headed for second. The throw in by the Maitland leftfielder got past the second baseman and the first baseman, who was backing up, allowing the speedy Tolomeo to round all the bags and score the winning run.

The Mohawks had taken a 5-1 lead after two innings in the contest and appeared on their way to an easy victory similar to the first game of the series. Hits by Frank Bonafacio and Al Lupo aided in a four-run second inning outburst for the Mohawks.

But Maitland pitchers Mike Miniaci and Mike Sabatello stalled the Mohawks attack for the next three innings. In the fifth inning Maitland scored four runs of their own to tie the

Waldwick defeated

Waldwick (8-11-1) scored four runs in the top of the sixth inning to come back from an 8-5 deficit and defeat Hawthorne (6-7-1), 9-8, in a Stan Musial League game, Thursday night, in a game called after six innings on account of darkness.

Hawthorne scored three runs in the first inning and five in the third. Waldwick scored two in the third, three in the fourth and four in the sixth. Waldwick out-hit the Hawthorne team 10 to 6.

In other games, Fair Lawn (11-6) ripped Saddle Brook (6-9), 10-0; Mahwah (9-5) toppled Paterson (10-4), 8-1; Paramus (13-5), edged River game. Don Furrey and Tom Branigan provided key hits for Maitland in the fifth inning comeback.

Sabatello had fanned five straight Mohawks in the fourth and fifth innings and was having little trouble when, quite suddenly, Tolomeo stepped up in the sixth and the game was over.

Tolomeo and Lupo each had two hits for the winners, the latter smashing a one-out triple to right center in the fourth. The duo, along with teammate Bill Barkenbush, also handled the pitching chores.

Lost in 1975... also in 1976 but take the title in 1977

Furrey led the Maitland squad with two hits. Miniaci had a single in the second which contributed to Maitland's first tally.

First game

Fourteen runs on eight hits in the last two innings enabled the Mohawks to rout Maitland in the first game of the series 20-3. In the fifth inning the Mohawks sent 14 men to the plate and pushed across 10 runs.

Tolomeo and Lupo once again led the Mohawk batting department, obtaining three extra base hits each. Carl Bostron, Rich Scalzitti, Keith Hansen, Russ Schoor and Bonifacio also hit well for the Mohawks. Schoor hit the only home run of the series, a three-run blast over the left field wall in the sixth. Mohawks' Mark Rupolo and Barkenbush got on base by virtue of base-on-balls three times a piece.

Tolomeo and Barkenbush handled the mound, striking out eight Maitland players and walking three.

Maitland had seven hits in the contest, one each for Miniaci, Jerry Scilla, M. Sabatello, Rich McFadden, John Minardi, Joe Calderone, and Furrey. Anthony Sabatello's ground out in the second inning knocked in the first Maitland run.

Congratulations to Mohawk manager Steve Agnes and assistants Al Agnes, Joe Boyle, and Don Giarusso for the championship victory. Congratulations are also in order for the Maitland staff of Tom Furrey manager and assistants Tony Miniaci, Tom Furrey and Jim Lutz.

All Stars win

Billy Contrini pitched a no-hitter Saturday to lead the Hawthorne All-Stars to a 9-0 win over Upper Saddle River in the first game of the North Jersey P.A.L. Tournament. Contrini struck out seven and walked three in the ballgame.

Al Lupo got what proved to be the game winning hit in the second inning with a two out single. The only homer in the game was a solo shot by "Boo" Brownlee in the fifth inning.

The next home game will be Thursday July 14 at Wag. 16:15 pm versus Oakland.

Bobby Bottcher returned the Hight Bros. #97 to the Orange County Fair Speedway victory lane Saturday night, outdueling runnerup Wayne Reutimann and fellow Floridian Gary Balough in the 30-lap modified stock car feature event.

Taking the lead on lap 21, the popular Lehigh, Pa. lead-foot, who started back in 22nd spot after qualifying through the consolation, easily pulled away to chalk up his third win of the current campaign. Point leader Wayne and four-time winner Balough were forced to come from the rear of the field after the two tangled on lap 10.

Finishing behind Bottcher, Wayne and Balough were Hank Goranson, Sonny Strupp, Johnny Harol, Frankie Schneider, Richie Eurich and Leroy Amy.

Over in the limited sportsman division Brett Hearn chalked up his fourth season win in the 20-lap main, besting rookie Anthony Ferraiuolo IV. Ferraiuolo had held the lead for the first twelve laps before Hearn was able to overtake the former Gary Balough modified #73. Bobby Houck, Stan Sherman and Nick Hober rounded out the top five.

Sportsman defending point champion Russ Meyer of Hawthorne, after winning the third heat race, suffered extensive front end damage to the Hawthorne Chevy-R. Douma and Sons Vega in the feature when he found himself in the middle of a multi-car first turn accident, finishing him for the night.

The ARDC Midgits return to Middletown this Saturday night, July 16. Race time is 6:30.

Brett Hearn completed the weekend with another feature win at the Nazareth Speedway, his ninth and fourth in a row for the young Kinnelon star. Taking the lead on a 12th lap restart Hearn outran runnerup Rich Yeter, Jack Kibblehouse, Bryan Kantner, Mark Fusco and Butch Tittle.

In the modified ranks, Sammy Beavers walked off with his third win of the year in the 30-lap main. All alone running second was Leroy Amy trailed by Bob Malzahn, Rich Eurich, Kevin Collins, Buzzie Reutimann, Ron Goodrich and Gary Balough. A skydiving show will accompany the sportsman and modified stock car program this Sunday at Nazareth. Race time is 6:30.

Also on tap Sunday, at the Dover Downs International Speedway, Rt. 13, Dover, Delaware, is the Atlantic Coast "300" NASCAR National Championship for the superspeedway asphalt modified cars, which appear at Daytona, Charlotte, Trenton and other top superspeedways. The long distance grind gets the green at 1:30 pm.

Asthma program gives children new perspective

More children suffer from asthma than from any other chronic respiratory illness. Yet one of the most important discoveries made by a group of asthmatic youngsters enrolled in a special physical fitness program this year, was that they were not alone with the problem. Of 31 youngsters, aged six to 15, who took the 32 week courses sponsored by the Bergen-Passaic Lung Association and given at the Ridgewood Y.M.C.A. and the Hawthorne Boys' Club, most gained a new and better perspective from knowing other youngster with the same problem.

They also gained confidence that they could control their illness. As one student's mother put it, her son learned that he could "control his body before and during an attack and not merely ride the waves of a storm". Seventy-five percent of the youngsters improved their ability to control attacks following the program of weekly breathing and physical fitness exercises. Some 92 percent experienced less severe attacks when they did occur.

According to a survey of the youngsters' parents following the program, most of the youngsters were generally better able to tolerate physical activity, and more than half missed fewer days at school than they had prior to taking the classes.

For further information on physical fitness programs for children suffering from asthma, contact the Bergen Passaic Lung Association, 55 Paramus Road, Paramus, phone 843-4111 or 881-8222.

"Bell, Book and Candle" next at Mall Playhouse

Lana Turner will star in "Bell, Book and Candle", John Van Druten's delightful brew of 20th century witchcraft and love, at Playhouse on the Mall, Bergen Mall, Paramus, July 19 through 24.

Van Druten's comedy about Gillian, the beautiful witch living in a fashionable Murray Hill apartment is a gloriously funny romp with the powers of black magic. The fun begins when Gillian decides to cast a spell over the debonaire publisher who lives upstairs. Her neighbor, played by Patrick Horgan, falls in love with her...and there's the rub. Gillian, being a witch, cannot love. By the play's end, however, Gillian has fallen in love, lost her powers and won her man.

It is an evening full of wit and laughter...and of thoroughly modern magic. The antics include a warlock bedeviling his enemies by cysing their phones to ring at all hours, Gillian's aunt using witchcraft to cope with New York City traffic, and other deliciously updated twists on the ancient black arts. (Incidentally, Gillian's aunt fails.)

Lana Turner who brings her special magic to the role of Gillian has enchanted movie audiences throughout the world. Along with Elizabeth Taylor, Doris Day and Shirley MacLaine, Miss Turner continues to hold her place as one of the 10 actresses whose movies have grossed more than any others in the history of motion pictures.

Born Julia Jean Turner in Wallace, Idaho, Miss Turner moved to Hollywood during her early teens, following the death of her father. It was in Hollywood that a local editor discovered her one day when she had cut high school classes to have a soda at the corner store. The editor introduced her to Mervyn LeRoy who gave her a new name, and a start at Warner Brothers Studios.

She later moved to MGM where she co-starred with such greats as Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy. She has a total of 44 movies to her credit, including "Ziegfeld Girl", "The Bad and the Beautiful", and "Peyton Place" for which she received an Academy Award nomination as best actress of the year.

"Harvey" now appearing at Montclair Summerfun Theatre

Summerfun Summer Theatre, New Jersey's only new-show-every-week summer stock company, presents HARVEY, the gentle comedy of mayhem and mirth, directed by Stephen Coy. The show opened Tuesday evening, July 12 and will run through Saturday evening, July 16 in Memorial Auditorium at Montclair State College, Upper Montclair, N.J. This is the third of six offerings this season from Summerfun, New Jersey's largest resident professional summer stock theatre.

"Harvey" one of the best known and best loved of all American comedies, is the story of one man's gentle fight with reality. Elwood P. Dowd, along with his long suffering sister, Veta Louis and her daughter Myrtle Mae; the stuffy frumpy psychiatrist, William R. Chumley, M.D. and the bewildered sanatorium attendant, Duane Wilson, have become some of our best loved characters. Harvey, the six foot pooka, himself, is one of the theatre's most lovable characters never to appear on stage.

Jim Netis will be appearing as Elwood P. Dowd; Robin Rowland as Veta Louise Simmons; Karen Primack as Myrtle Mae Simmons; Stoney Jameson as William R. Chumley, M.D.; and Mike Rowan as Duane Wilson. Also appearing will be Sandra Teller, Frank De Chillo, Christine Mauricio, Nari Avari and Christopher Olsen. Harvey will appear as himself.

Curtain time is 8:30 pm. For information and reservations, call the box office at (201) 746-9120.

Shown above are two contestants in a practice session for the forthcoming New Jersey Banjo Championship contest, part of the Bergen Mall, Paramus, Fourth Annual Blueberry Festival. Preliminaries will be Wednesday, July 20, at 7 pm; finals the following evening at 7:30 pm. The Blueberry Festival will be July 20 to 23, complete with the sale of tons of blueberries, blueberry muffins, blueberry pie eating and blueberry packing contests. Left to right are Kathy Kaplan of Sussex, one of the judges, a disc jockey of WBAI Radio, N.Y.C.; Omar Mendez of Pompton Lakes, a member of the Fit to be Tied Country Rock and Bluegrass group; and Claire A. Reynolds of Long Valley, who is a vocalist and plays rhythm with the Blue Sparks from Hell, a country swing group.

Banjo championship scheduled for July 20, 21

There'll be a whole lot of pickin'-an-grinnin' goin' on at Bergen Mall, Paramus, Wednesday and Thursday, July 20 and 21. The event is the New Jersey Banjo Championship contest, part of the Mall's Fourth Annual Blueberry Festival, Wednesday through Saturday, July 20-23.

Top-notch amateurs will compete for prizes in two categories - five-string blue grass and old-time music. The best two performers in each category will receive $50 and $25 respectively. The competition, coordinated by Paul Ellis of Ridgedale Park will begin with the preliminaries, Wednesday, July 20, at 7 pm. The finals will be held the following evening at 7:30.

Ten players in each category will compete in the preliminaries, with the field being reduced to five in each category for the finals.

Three people, described by Ellis as outstanding in the field of music, will judge the old-fashioned competition. The trio of experts includes Kathy Kaplan, a WKCR-Radio DJ for New York's only blue-grass radio show, "Moonshine in the Morning".

"I think the competition is going to be a whole lot of fun," Ellis predicted. "As far as I know this will be the only competition of its kind in New Jersey, and I'm hoping that it might become an annual happening. There are an awful lot of good players around, so it should really be an interesting couple of evenings."

Annual Bible Conference Begins Sunday, July 17

The annual Bible Conference of the Hawthorne Gospel Church will begin this coming Sunday and will continue every night in the week through Labor Day. Some of the outstanding Bible teachers of the country will be heard, along with gifted musicians, a number of significant films will be shown.

On the first four days Donald Hescott, the executive vice president of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, will give some of his practical Bible talks. A five-man musical group from the institute will sing on Sunday and Monday.

On Thursday evening Edward Dodson of Ireland will speak on "Revival." He is a Dean of Student Affairs at Victory Baptist College and, because of his interest and ability in sports, he also serves as the head soccer coach of the college. Mr. Dodson will speak each evening from next Thursday through the following Sunday.

The summer Bible Conference is sponsored by the Hawthorne Gospel Church and the sessions are held in its big Summer Pavilion on Route 208 in Hawthorne, N.J. The week-day meetings are at 7:45 each evening but on Sundays they are in the morning at 8:30 and 11:00 o'clock, and on Sunday evenings at 7:00. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Jehovahs convention scheduled for July 21

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York has completed arrangements for a series of 108 conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses this summer in the United States.

Robert Sindle, spokesman for Hawthorne, said the local congregation will send approximately 71 representatives to Allentown, Pennsylvania, July 21-24. The meeting is scheduled for the Fairgrounds Grandstand.

Sindle said the theme of the conventions this year is "Joyful Workers." He also said that 7,500 are expected to attend the four-day assembly. The spokesman added that nearly 1,000,000 persons are expected to attend the 108 conventions in 63 cities this year.

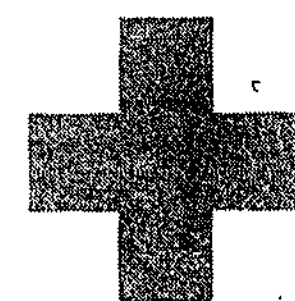

"We expect attendance figures to exceed 1976 totals," he said. "Last year, 2,333,115 delegates were present at meetings in 56 countries throughout the world."

Sindle said the program is divided into four parts including family life, productive work in a troubled society, emphasis on the Witnesses' house-to-house visitation program and impressions on coping with the problems affecting youth and adults.

The highlight of the convention will be the address, "How God's Kingdom Can Benefit You," scheduled for Sunday, July 24, at 2 pm. The public is invited.

The answer differs for every person. Enough life insurance depends on how much monthly income your family would need if you weren't around to support them...and how much income you want at retirement if you live. Let me help you determine how much is right for you.

The Grapevine

By Joe Friedman

One way to learn about wines is to taste them, and one of the most pleasant ways to taste wine is with the appropriate foods. To-wards this end, Callar in the Sky (part of New York's famed Windows on the World restaurant) offers a full-course dinner - with a different good wine served with each course.

The rooster seal on Chianti bottles is a guarantee of authenticity - but some of the biggest names in Chianti never joined the consorzio, feeling their names were guaranteed enough. And they are. You can depend on their qual-ity.

Wineries are looking dif-ferent today - even the most traditional wineries accept the superiority of stainless steel tanks for fermenta-tion since they are cleaner. But wood is still being used for aging.

Some delights come from happy accidents. The head of a monastery in the Sa-ternes area of France de-parted for a trip and left in-structions that the grapes in the order's vineyards were not to be picked until he re-turned. He was delayed, and the grapes shriveled. When at last the grapes were picked, the wine turned out to be sweet and deli-cious.

Girl Scouts complete activities

Troop 250
June, being the last formal meeting month for the Girl Scouts, was a busy time for Junior Troop 250.

The month began with the scouts working on the observer badge by hiking through Tillman Ravine at Stokes State Forest. The girls discussed the flora, fauna and geological makeup of the area. On the way home, they stopped at Vernon Valley to ride the Alpine Slide.

On June 6, the scouts entertained the third grade brownies from Troop 159 at a bridging party. The event was an early welcoming to the fly-ups coming into the troop. The Juniors discussed what they had done during the

Troop 177

Troop 177 held a bridging party with sister Troop 53. At this time the scouts received the newly designed Hawthorne badge by Junior Scout Carol Ver Voorn of Troop 53. The girls also received as a gift the uniform sashes that they will use as junior scouts this fall.

Troop 177 held their final meeting on Monday June 20, at G.M.C. in Hawthorne with their sister Troop 53. Bowing ended with a pizza party. All the scouts who received their bridging badge and wings are looking forward to joining their sister Troop 53 this fall as junior scouts.

Variance denied for Mohawk Auto Body

One year after a fire damaged Mohawk Auto Body, 1125 Goffle Road, the Hawthorne Board of Adjustment denied a variance to owner Thomas D. Brown, who sought to rebuild the industrial structure. The decision was announced at Monday's meeting of the zoners, three months after the case was remanded to the board by Superior Court Judge Joseph Donatelli. The 10-page resolution, which took vice chairman John Coughlin over 15 minutes to read, passed by a 4-0 vote.

In denying the variance, the board cited seven reasons: that the fire on July 12, 1976 caused an effective total destruction of the building; that the action of the Superintendent of Building in refusing to grant a permit to rebuild with the same perimeter was correct; that erosion by the Goffle Brook has so undermined a portion of the premises as to make it structurally infeasible to rebuild.

The reasons continue: that the property could be developed for an I-1 use without necessity for any variances except lot width; that a building of substantial size could be constructed with an I-1 use in conformity to the ordinance; that the applicant failed to demonstrate that there would be peculiar and exceptional hardships and that variances could not be granted without substantial detriment to the public good.

Following last July's fire, Brown applied to the superintendent of building for a building permit, but was refused. The matter was heard before the Board of Adjustment on September 27, 1976 and on October 26, 1976, and was unanimously denied.

Brown then took the matter to court and Judge Joseph Donatelli of Superior Court remanded the case back to the board on April 6, 1977 for a recital of full and complete findings and conclusions, including determination by the board as to whether or not a variance is needed as a matter of law.

The Board of Adjustment conducted public hearings on April 18 and May 2, 1977 and the four members of the board, who were in office in 1976, La Barre, Coughlin, Simone and Reckenbeil, visited and inspected the premises. Eighteen findings of fact were listed in the board's resolution.

One of these concerns the condition of the building after the fire. The Board of Adjustment finds that the following were destroyed: 75 per cent of the roof which was removed from the building (the remaining 25 per cent would be useable only if portions of the walls supporting it are sound and permitted to remain in their present position); all windows and frames; the entire electrical service and all wiring; the entire south wall; extensive portions of the front or westerly wall; all inside plumbing; two of the three overhead garage doors; 100 per cent of the heating and ventilating systems and all interior partitions.

The findings further state that all that remains of the building are footings, floor, northerly wall, westerly wall, portions of the easterly and southerly walls and a portion of the roof. "The credible testimony adduced before the board makes it clear that the only portions of the building that might be salvageable are part of the northerly wall and part of the roof that remains in position," it states.

The board also cited the fact that the insurance company had paid for a loss of 80 per cent of the building. The building was insured for $25,000 and the insurance company paid $21,649.32 less depreciation of $3,823.02 for a net loss figure of $17,826.30.

According to Robert Passero, attorney for Mohawk Auto Body, the matter is not yet over, since it must now go back to court, where the judge will consider the case based upon the findings of fact completed by the board.

Mrs. Mobius, Artsma named to boards

The first woman ever to be named to the Hawthorne Board of Adjustment was appointed at last night's meeting of the Board of Commissioners. Mrs. Ella Mobius, of 55 Sunrise Drive, will begin her term in August. She is treasurer of the Franklin Bank, Paterson office and is a 32 year veteran in the banking field.

She began her career in 1941 at the Second National Bank, Straight Street office and then moved to First National Bank where she worked until joining the Franklin Bank in 1964. She was assistant manager of the Hawthorne branch in 1975, before her promotion to treasurer in 1976.

A graduate of Central High School and Paterson Business College, she completed many professional courses with the American Institute of Banking. She is married to Frank Mobius, who is manager-vice president of Alexander Hamilton Savings and Loan's Hawthorne office. They have one daughter Katherine Rautenbach and a grandson, David, who reside in Florida.

Mrs. Mobius has resided here for 25 years and has been active in civic affairs, such as the local cancer crusades. She is also a member of the Hawthorne United Methodist Church.

Her appointment brings the board to a full complement of seven members. Mrs. Mobius replaces Floyd Hughes, who resigned last month for health reasons.

At the same session, Earl Artsma of 62 Woodside Avenue was named to the Planning Board, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Fred Hoag. Mr. Artsma is the president of Lakeview Farms, 1020 Goffle Road, Hawthorne. He also owns J and W Egg Company of Newark and has worked in this field all of his life.

A 1954 graduate of Hawthorne High School, he served with

Window breaking continues with 14 more

Window breaking hasn't ceased in the borough, even though the police apprehended a juvenile for incidents that occurred earlier this month and during March of this year. The youth, who was arrested last week, was 17-years-old and was caught with a supply of rocks in the back seat of his vehicle. In the new incidents, both rocks and beer cans or bottles were used to do the damage. This time, the vandalism involved more car windows than store fronts. However, one driver did report that it was two juveniles on foot in the area of Goffle Road that broke his windshield.

The following reported damage to their vehicles sometime Monday night: Raymond Gregory, Jr., of 121 Tenth Avenue, passenger window; Allan Mawhinney, 130 Arlington Avenue, windshield; Russell Tiger, 62 Seventh Avenue, left rear window; Nathan D'Aiuto, 164 Sunrise Drive, door window; William Benwell, 49 Sunrise Drive, left side window; Henry Vogel, 584 Goffle Hill Road, windshield; Peter Gostkowski, 33 Mandon Terrace, rear window and windshield; David Neeb, 105 Ninth Avenue, windshield; Donald Garside, 65 May Street, windshield broken by a beer can thrown by two boys while driving on Goffle Road.

Plate glass windows were broken at these locations Monday night: Harder Service Company, 146 Florence Avenue and Park Cyclery, 114 Lincoln Avenue (caused by a beer bottle.)

Early Sunday morning, while on patrol, Pti. George Metzler observed that windows had been broken at Hawthorne Barber Shop, 265 Hawthorne Avenue; the Fabric Corner, 256 Hawthorne Avenue, (two windows). Both places were damaged by rocks. At Tara Sisters Dance Studio, 236 Lafayette Avenue, the front window was broken by a beer bottle.

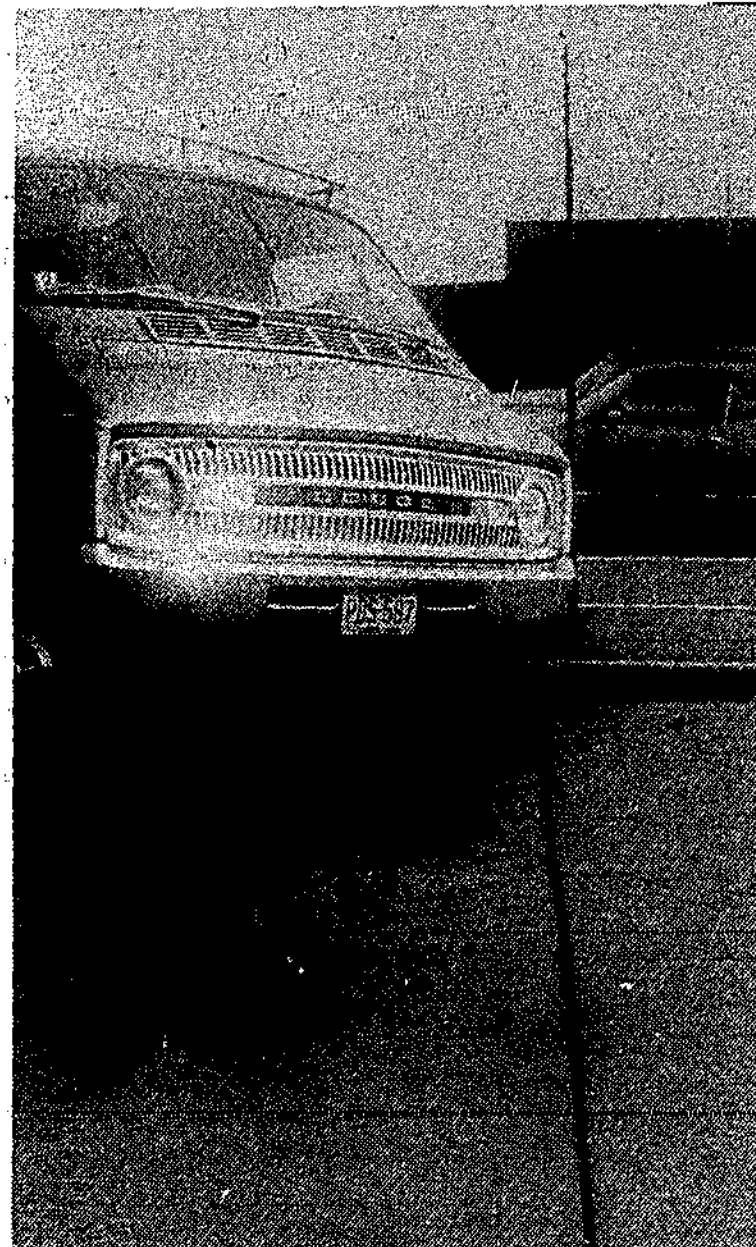

Temperatures plunged to a cool 90 degrees at noon yesterday, marking the first break in a weeklong heat wave in this area. It was standing room only at the Hawthorne Municipal Pool where most of the borough's population converged in hopes of cooling off. Even at supper hour, when these photos were taken, the pool lacked the empty look that usually occurs at meal times.

Tuesday temperatures soared to 102 degrees, breaking an all-time record set for that date. Although many surrounding communities have issued water alerts, the situation has not been termed critical in Hawthorne, which has its own water supply.

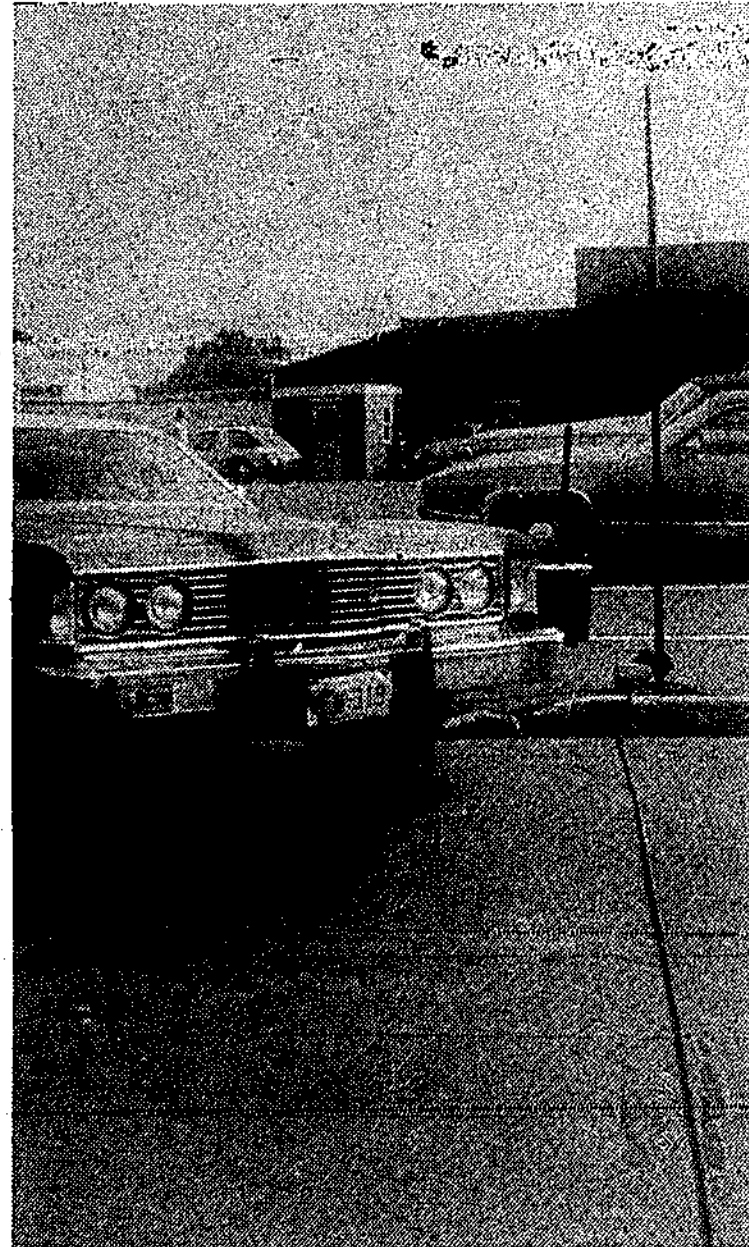

New Jersey's Energy Commissioner Joel Jacobson has asked state residents to be "judicious" in the use of water and urged conservation of electricity, especially air conditioning. He also recommended that washing machines, clothes dryers, dishwashers and other appliances be used at night when energy demand drops.

Consumers will feel the effects of the heat wave as it combines with drought conditions across the U.S. Crop failures are expected to result in higher prices in the coming months.

Counting on you

Every few years, the New Jersey State Department of Transportation makes surveys of traffic conditions in each municipality. This week DOT crews set up road counters on several of Hawthorne's main roads, such as Goffle Road, Lafayette Avenue and other busy thoroughfares. Pictured are two vehicles as they ride over the counter on Uter Avenue.

Adjustment Board grants 5 variances

A variance to permit Hawthorne Auto Sales to construct a 12 by 17 foot addition to their used car sales lot was granted by the Board of Adjustment on Monday. The structure will be used to make two offices for salesmen on the used car lot. Gene Meyers, president of the company, told the board that the used car lot has a capacity of 117 cars, but even at peak periods, there are only 70-80 vehicles for sale. The enlarged facilities will provide office room for all four salesmen.

In other action, the board approved all necessary variances for F. and E. Alfano, 210 Rock Road who are purchasing property from Mrs. Helen Peters, 206 Rock Road and wish to redraw lot lines. William Nesbet of 22 Fairview Avenue was granted a variance to construct a 12-foot addition to his kitchen. The property would be one and a half feet short of the required front setback.

Approval was granted to D. Singer of 172 Rock Road to add a rear extension with retention of a 10 foot easterly sideyard.

Biaga D'Agate of 51 Pasadena Place was granted approval for a continuous chain link fence along the front property line and partially along the sidewalk of Rea Avenue.

Two variances were denied by the board. Dino Lemme of 188 Westervelt Avenue was turned down in his request to add a second floor addition for use in his first floor apartment. Lemme told the board that he needed additional room to house his mother-in-law and his wife's grandmother, who reside with them. The second floor of the two-family house contains a three-room apartment which Lemme rents out.

The vote was 3-3 on a motion to allow the 12 x 26 foot addition. When the motion failed, Lemme accused board members of not "having a heart."

Firemen keep busy

Firemen have been busy as extreme heat conditions contributed to fires in the borough. On Tuesday at 12:30, two junk cars were being towed by a Mike's Auto Parts truck when a blaze ignited. Oil on one of the vehicles is believed to have ignited while the vehicles were in the vicinity of Lincoln Avenue and Wagaraw Road. Fireman Al Erdmann received burns while working at the scene.

At 11 am, all four fire companies were summoned to a brush fire at the Hawthorne Gospel Church on Route 208. In the early hours of the morning, an alarm was sounded for a car fire at Goffle Road and North 8th Street. This time another towed vehicle was involved. The rear axle had dropped and sparks caused the gas tank to ignite. All four fire companies responded.

Saturday morning, a fire broke out in a bedroom at 372 Goffle Hill Road where someone was loading gun shells and some powder apparently set off a blaze.

At 5:35 am, all four fire companies responded to a house fire at 6 Park Avenue in the apartment of Victor Gross. The blaze started in a rear bedroom on the second floor. A sofa bed was destroyed and heavy smoke and water damage resulted.

Caballeros entertain at All-Star Game

Prior to the 48th Annual All-Star game in Yankee Stadium Tuesday night, the crowd of nearly 60,000 fans was entertained by the Hawthorne Caballeros in an 18-minute exhibition. According to James J. Costello, corps director, George Steinbrenner, principal owner of the New York Yankees, was so thrilled with their performance in the Kansas City playoffs and in the World Series, that he promised to have the Cabs back for the next big occasion.

"The entire Caballeros corps, as well as families, are thrilled to have been part of such a great night in American sports history," said Costello. The 117-member group is led by Jim Russo, an eight-year veteran.

Later this season, the drum corps will perform at halftime shows including the Giants-Buffalo exhibition in Giants Stadium on August 29; the Army - Colorado opener at West Point on October 1 and the Army-Notre Dame game in Giants Stadium on October 15.

The Caballeros are hoping that they'll be able to raise the necessary funds to make the trip to the National American Legion championships set for August 20-21 in Denver, Colorado. The site of the big event is Mile High Stadium home of the NFL Denver Broncos.

The corps will also defend their DCA (Drum Corps Associates) National title on September 4 in Allentown, Pa., with some 16,000 fans expected. The preliminaries start at 11 am with the finals in the evening.

They have won 16 out of their last 17 competitive outings. On Friday, July 29, both the Caballeros and the Hawthorne Muchachos Junior Drum and Bugle Corps will give a hometown exhibition. The program is scheduled for 8:30 pm in the Allison N. King Athletic Field, Hawthorne High as a "thank you" for the support of American Legion Post 199. Admission is free, but a voluntary donation will be accepted.

How much life insurance is enough?

Vandalism is an epidemic

When the news broke that the Hawthorne police had apprehended a juvenile for numerous window breaking incidents in our borough, it was easy to be lulled into thinking that the vandalism would cease. Yet within one week, 14 more residents and store owners awoke to find windows smashed on their property. This time, the targets were car windows and windshields, more than store fronts.

The police aren't saying who is suspected of committing these destructive acts, but in at least one case, two young boys were observed doing the damage. This brings us to the question of parental responsibility. Parents can't know what their children are doing when they are on their own, but they should be aware of where the youngsters are, especially at night.

The only defense a car owner has against this type of vandalism is to keep his vehicle in a garage and for some, this is not a workable solution. The other way citizens can help is by being alert and notifying police immediately if they see or hear any type of vandalism.

None of these are solutions to the problems, which is part of a nationwide epidemic of vandalism and destruction.

It's about time

The appointment of Mrs. Ella Mobius to the Board of Adjustment marks the first time a woman has been named to serve in this capacity. As a veteran banking official, she has gained tremendous experience in the business and financial world. We hope her background will aid her in the many difficult decisions that face the zoning board.

We applaud the decision of the Board of Commissioners to provide a female member for one of its major boards. As more and more action is being taken to equalize appointments at all levels of government, it's about time that Hawthorne has begun to follow the trend.

Letters to the Editor

Coverage aids events

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Missonellie,

The Junior Woman's Club of Hawthorne has completed another successful year and feel that much of the success is due to the excellent coverage we received from your paper. By keeping the public informed of upcoming events, we are assured of good support and attendance. Since we depend on public support to help raise our funds for charity, we could not function without the cooperation of you and the residents of our town. We were able to raise over $6,000 for the Brian Keyzer Fund due to support of Hawthorne's residents and many organizations. The success of our season's party, which was held for the first time this year, was greatly due to the many merchants who donated prizes for this fund-raiser.

Our "junk & gems" sale, the Santa train ride, the art show and the cancer crusade, to mention a few of our projects, were all a success due to the support of Hawthorne's residents, businesses and officials.

We thank you again for all your cooperation and support.

Sincerely yours,

Peggy Mullin
Public Relations Chairman

Don't drink & drive

The New Jersey State Safety Council alarmed by the rash of highway crashes which snuffed out the lives of so many young adults during the month of June, has raised the question "was alcohol a causative factor in these crashes?"

The council expressed concern that many drivers, especially young drivers, seem to be unaware of the dangers of drinking and driving.

The council points out that since the drinking age was lowered to 18, the percentage of 18 to 20 year olds who were involved in fatal highway crashes while either drunk or impaired has nearly quadrupled.

To counteract the shocking problem of highway deaths involving the irresponsible use of alcohol the council recommends:

- that a study be conducted to determine whether consideration should be given to raising the legal drinking age.
 - that local police departments in cooperation with the news media develop programs to advise motorists that they are actively enforcing the drinking driving laws.
 - that state and local authorities establish uniform closing hours for all establishments that serve alcoholic beverages.
 - that police departments step up enforcement of the drinking driving laws, especially during the early morning hours and summer week-ends.
- The council also suggested that local school districts with the assistance of the State Department of Education and other responsible agencies launch an alcohol education campaign to clearly explain to students the consequences of drinking and driving.

KIWANIS OR NE

Last week the Hawthorne Kiwanis Club went to Shea Stadium and saw the Mets win a home game. Everyone enjoyed a good evening together. Thanks to Billie Sutherland for running a great trip.

The Annual Kiwanis Swim Meet was held at the Hawthorne Memorial Pool. Chairman Bill Klepper did another outstanding job. A special thanks to the Borough Commissioners for permitting this annual event and many thanks to the life guards for their efforts, making this event as good as it is.

After many events the outstanding swimmer for all events was Robert Bertolli. The best girl swimmer was Jane Goldberg. A tie for the best boy swimmer went to Thomas Halliwell and Joseph Harraka. A Kiwanis congratulations to all the winners and participants.

Past Lieut. Governor Dr. Raymond Plough inducted our newest member at our regular meeting. Welcome to William Finley.

Interclub Chairman Charles Lambert introduced the visiting Passaic Valley Club at our meeting. First V.P. John Wordenti made a few remarks.

Program Chairman William Kahn introduced our guest speaker, Assemblyman Ronald Fava who spoke on "Happenings in Trenton". Assemblyman Fava stated that the school crisis was a planned and created crisis to push the passing of the state income tax. Of the 900 million dollars collected, 500 million was returned as property tax rebates, 120 million was returned as state aid to municipalities and 280 million went towards state aid to education. Mr. Fava stated that there were alternate methods of raising the needed funds without a state income tax. After answering many questions from the members present Mr. Fava was thanked for attending and giving us some insight into state legislative methods and procedures.

The Grapevine

By Joe Friedman

One way to learn about wines is to taste them, and one of the most pleasant ways to taste wine is with the appropriate foods. Towards this end, Cellar in the Sky (part of New York's famed Windows on the World restaurant) offers a full-course dinner - with a different good wine served with each course.

The rooster seal on Chianti bottles is a guarantee of authenticity - but some of the biggest names in Chianti never joined the consorzio, feeling their names were guaranteed enough. And they are. You can depend on their quality.

Wineries are looking different today - even the most traditional winners accept the superiority of stainless steel tanks for fermentation since they are cleaner. But wood is still being used for aging.

Some delights come from happy accidents. The head of a monastery in the Staunton area of France departed for a trip and left instructions that the grapes in the order's vineyards were not to be picked until he returned. He was delayed, and the grapes shriveled. When at last the grapes were picked, the wine turned out to be sweet and delicious.

Family Care for the Elderly

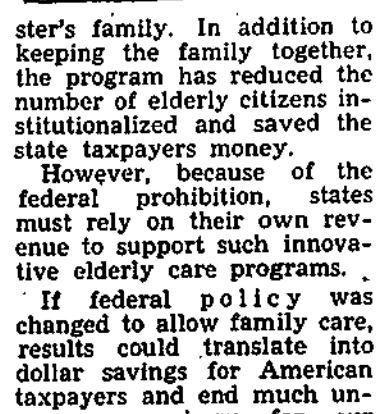

Many bewildered senior citizens have written to the National Suggestion Box for help. The government offers to take care of them if they will move into a nursing home. But many would prefer to live at home with their families who want to care for them.

Ms. Roma Lowe of Nyack, New York suggests that "the government subsidize families for taking care of their elderly members in preference to placing them in nursing homes."

The government prohibits family members from receiving federal funds to care for their elderly. Uncle Sam is afraid that families will keep the money for themselves rather than spend it on the elderly family member.

This federal policy, formulated in 1955, has facilitated the growth of today's nursing home industry. Five-billion dollars of federal funds were funneled into nursing homes last year alone. Nursing home abuses of federal funds are legendary. Meanwhile, many elderly citizens are forced to live apart from those they love.

Several citizens have advised us of small programs within their states which help family members care for their elderly. Texas has a program which actually sends caretakers from within the oldster's family. In addition to keeping the family together, the program has reduced the number of elderly citizens institutionalized and saved the state taxpayers money.

However, because the federal prohibition, states must rely on their own revenue to support such innovative elderly care programs.

If federal policy was changed to allow family care, results could translate into dollar savings for American taxpayers and end much unnecessary misery for our senior citizens.

If you have a suggestion for the solution of national problems, write to the National Suggestion Box, address shown above.

Bob Schmidt, with 464, leads Brett Hearn, with 424, in the sportsman division point chase. Defending champion Russ Meyer, of Hawthorne, stands seventh with 266, while Midland Park's Larry Brotsma, with one feature win to his credit, is ninth with 239 markers.

The regular 13-event modified sportsman stock car program is on tap for this Saturday at 6:30.

Rain also claimed the Nazareth Speedway Sunday program after the three Sportsman and two modified heats were completed. The show will be resumed this Sunday with the third modified heat followed by the consolations and both features. The regularly scheduled card will follow plus a Demolition Derby.

Race time has been changed to 5:30 pm due to the extra event program.

The "Atlantic Coast 300" for the asphalt modifieds, scheduled for last Sunday, July 17, has been rescheduled for August 21 at Dover Downs International Speedway.

Marshall wins race at Goshen

When racing came alive at Historic Track in Goshen, New York, this season, Hawthorne's Jimmy Marshall won a meaningful victory. Jimmy, who turned 19 on July 9, displayed top notch racing skills as he raced to victory the day before his birthday.

Jimmy received his provisional sulky driving license last winter and won a race at Freehold earlier this year. Marshall drove Avon Starlet to victory in a two-year-old pacing fillies dash. The young driver, who played football and was on the track team at Hawthorne High, has been around horses for 10 years. The Marshall Stables are owned by his father Jim Marshall and his uncle, Harold Marshall.

Jimmy needs only three more drives to qualify for his A license, which will permit him to race anywhere. The combination of his competitive spirit, his love of horses and his involvement in athletics make him a driver with excellent potential.

Entertainment

Every Wednesday, Friday, Saturday

by Michael Levine

To say Paul Anka is a fine entertainer is like saying Mozart wrote songs. It somehow doesn't quite do him justice. Last week, at the beautiful Westchester Premier Theatre in Tarrytown, N.Y., Anka delivered the Ultimate Concert-Brilliant in Everyway! After the evening, there appears little doubt that Anka is heir to Sinatra's throne as "King of the Male Vocalists". Unlike Sinatra, Anka is a brilliant songwriter whose credits include "My Way," "She's a Lady," "Diana," "Puppy Love," "Havin' my Baby," "Times of your Life" The Tonight Show Theme - over 400 titles in all and he is only 36 years old. Anka works the audience better than anyone - not letting up start to finish - over two hours. The sold out crowd stood several times to pay homage to this amazing entertainer. Anka's latest album is on United Artist called "Music Man" and is also excellent. The latest novelty is an Idi Amin Voodoo Doll complete with pins and everything. For information write S. P. Enterprises, P. O. Box 28005, San Jose, CA. The first film by comedian Joan Rivers called "Rabbit Test", will be released in the early fall. The film is about the first male in history to get pregnant. Recently saw Woody Allen's "Annie Hall" and I am happy to report it's a funny film. Jack Nicholson has been dating Cher. Press releases to my office have been telling me that Sonny Bono plans on spending $200,000. for his upcoming wedding to Susie Cochio in September. Now if Sonny Bono is stupid enough to think by spending that kind of $$ it will make for a better wedding or even a better marriage, that's his thing but why the hell is he telling me.

Are we all supposed to be so impressed that some third rate cancelled TV performer has that kind of loot. Grow up, little boy Bono. Rock Hudson has taken up needlepoint between takes of "McMillan & Wife". There is nothing wrong with a guy doing that. I just don't think he would get fresh squeezed at Anita Bryant's. Peter Seller recently hurt himself when he took a fall at his South of France home. The new take talk show Fernwood 2 Night is excellent. It's on Mon-Fri. 11 pm on 5. We will be having our second Spotlight Call In on Wednesday, July 27 from 7-8 pm. You probably remember how it works. You call the special number (201) 791-7221 and you can speak directly to Michael Levine. Ask him about the stars, his job, the groups, the movies, what he had for dinner that night, anything at all. So get your question ready for July 27 7-8 pm: P.S. As they were the last time, we expect the lines to be very busy so just keep dialing.

Summerfun presents "When You Coming Back, Red Ryder"

Summerfun Summer Theatre, New Jersey's largest resident professional summer stock company presents When You Coming Back, Red Ryder? in Memorial Auditorium, Montclair State College, Upper Montclair, N.J. The show will run from Tuesday until Saturday, July 23. This is the fourth production of the season for the Summerfun company.

"It is a fascinating and commanding play..." said Clive Barnes of the New York Times. When You Coming Back, Red Ryder?, the winner of the Obie Award and the Outer Critics Circle Award, is the strong and violent story of seven people whose lives are laid bare by menacing and bitter young drifter. Set in an all-night dinner in a small Southwestern town, this powerful play will rivet your attention to the stage as the pretensions, dreams and inner-most fears of the characters are drawn out in parade before you by the bullying, taunting and sadistic humor of a drifter on his way to nowhere.

The climactic last scene will shock you, provoke you, and ultimately haunt you. Appearing as the young drifter, Teddy, will be Mike Rowan with Christopher Olsen playing Stephen "Red Ryder" and Christine Mauricio, as Angle. Also appearing in the cast will be Jim Netis, Robin Rowland, Stoney Jameson, Glenn R. Czak and Sandra Teller.

Curtain time is 8:30 pm. For information and reservations call the box office at (201) 746-9120.

NJPTV to present Russian Festival of music, dance at Rova Farms

The public is invited to an afternoon of provincial music and dance at New Jersey Public Television's Russian Festival, Sunday, July 24, at 1 pm at Rova Farms, Jackson, New Jersey.

NJPTV will videotape the festivities for national distribution this summer and for airing on its own channels. The festival will feature four outstanding musical and dance groups gathered for the occasion and two soloists.

The Philadelphia Festival Balalaika Orchestra of some 55 members will perform under the direction of Paul Kauriga. Paul Kauriga, Jr., will direct the Glinka Singers, a group numbering approximately 18.

Provincial dancing representing many republics of the Soviet Union will be performed by the Glinka Russian Folk Dancers, who have traveled extensively throughout the northeastern United States and have danced at such cultural centers as the United Nations, Carnegie and Town Halls, the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, the New York World Fair and Rutgers University. They are directed by Alexander Kosik.

Bass soloist will be Konstantin Moskalenko, who was educated at the Curtis Institute of Music. Moskalenko made his operatic debut as Colline in "La Boheme" with the Garden State Opera Company and has since worked in Broadway shows, summer stock, at Jones Beach and City Center Light Opera Company. He has also appeared in movies and on TV.

One of the few remaining professional male choruses outside of Russia dedicated to Russian folk music, the Cappella Russian Male Chorus will introduce the audience to Russian Church music as well as folk music. The Cappella has sung more than 400 concerts in the Eastern U.S., and is made up of a cross-section of men representing all walks of life. Director is Walter Shymansky.

"Russian Festival: Music and Dance of the Provinces" will take place at Rova Farms, one of few settlements of Russian emigres and descendants. Rova Farms is on Route 571, approximately one-half mile south of its intersection with Route 528.

Admission is $3 per person, with children under 12 years of age admitted free. Russian food and drink will be available.

"Russian Festival: Music and Dance of the Provinces" will be part of the "Summer Festival" of the Eastern Educational Network, a network of public television stations on the East Coast and in most of the large markets in the nation. Producer is George Tawel.

Band concert tomorrow

The Hawthorne Fire Department Band, conducted by Hugh Fulton, will give a free concert at Haledon's Roe Street Field on Friday at 7:30 pm. The public is requested to bring chairs or blankets so that they can relax and enjoy the concert in complete comfort.

Tony Tanner to star in "Seven Keys to Baldpate"

George M. Cohan's comedy-thriller "Seven Keys to Baldpate" will star Tony Tanner at the Playhouse on the Mall, Bergen Mall, Paramus, Tuesday, July 26, through Sunday, July 31. The great George M. combines mystery, melodrama, murder and laughter - in a fast paced story of the goings-on during one hilariously hectic winter night in a summer hotel called Baldpate Inn.

Writer William Magee goes there in the dead of winter to win a $5,000 bet by turning out a 10,000 word word-dun-it in 24 hours. He thinks he has the only key to the deserted hotel, but soon realizes he would have more peace and quiet in Grand Central station. Murder, blackmail, intrigue, and general pandemonium follow as, one after the other, six keys turn in the lock. Before the night is over, Magee's guests - who range from a trigger happy ex-con to a beautiful reporter - provide him with enough material for several who-dun-its.

Cohan who was no slouch himself, wrote "Seven Keys to Baldpate" in just 10 days, and played the part of Magee in the first performances. It is undoubtedly the most popular of the more than 40 plays credited to the great "Yankee Doodle Dandy".

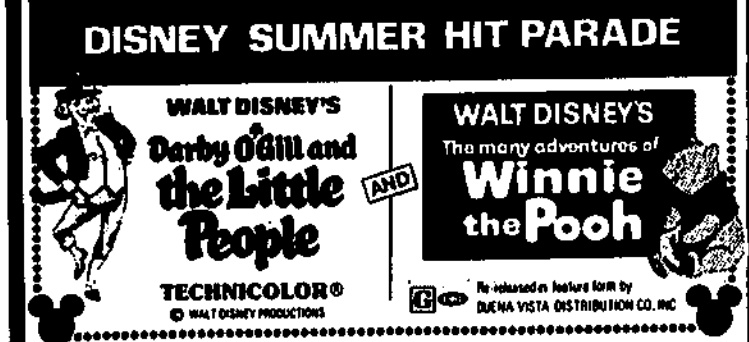

The versatile author, actor, song and dance man who was born, appropriately, on the fourth of July, is also remembered for his such as "45 Minutes From Broadway" and "Get-Rich-Quick-Wallford", and for songs that include "Over There", "Mary", and, of course, "Yankee Doodle Dandy".

Tony Tanner who will star as Bill Magee, has also played the part of the comedy's author. Tanner once did a seven month, 50 state tour as the redoubtable Cohan in "George M".

Tanner's most recent Broadway appearance was in the highly acclaimed production of "Sherlock Holmes". He has to his credit a stint in the off-Broadway productions of "The Homecoming" and "Little Foxes", and has toured in "Where's Charley", he has staged opera for the city of Chicago, and has directed Washington, D.C., San Francisco and Los Angeles productions of "Something's Afoot".

Tanner starred as Littlechap in the film version of & Stop the World, I Want to Get Off", has directed classic plays at Oxford, and has written and appeared in reviews at the Edinburgh Festival and in London.

Bicycle thieves apprehended

A Black Negro male was apprehended by Hawthorne Patrolmen David Noble and Thomas Kenyon for breaking, entry and larceny Sunday afternoon. This incident centered around a bicycle that was taken from the garage of John Haas, 45 Diamond Bridge Avenue. According to police, the alleged thief dropped the bike and fled on foot when he saw Haas coming out of his house.

Based on a description supplied by the victim, Kenyon and Noble searched the area and apprehended Richard Allan Mc Coy, 21, of 9 Amity Street, Paterson. He was brought to headquarters and charged with breaking and entry and larceny and remanded to Passaic County Jail in lieu of $1000 bail.

Tuesday morning two unidentified borough youths apprehended a Black youth and a Puerto Rican youth, who had stolen two bikes from the rack at Lincoln School. Police were called to the area by Frank Passero of 160 Sylvester Avenue and Larry Gentile of 129 Post Avenue, whose bikes had been taken.

While police were checking the area, the suspects were caught on the tracks by the Hawthorne pair, who metted out some physical justice of their own and returned the bikes to the owners.

Four other incidents of bike thefts were reported last week. On July 22, Susan Knox of 35 Mc Kinley Avenue and Joseph Guidice of 42 Forest Avenue reported bikes stolen from their yards. Joseph Harraka of 159 Tenth Avenue and Margaret O'Hagen of 121 Ninth Avenue informed police of bicycle thefts on July 25.

With the increasing amount of bike thefts taking place in the borough, Police Chief V.J. Mangiafico states, "It has come to the attention of the department that there are still a lot of bikes which are unregistered. Residents are urged to take advantage of bike registration held every Wednesday from noon to 5 pm."

"Many whose bikes are stolen do not even know the serial number. Of the past 12 bicycles stolen, only one was registered. We cannot utilize the police teletype without a coded ID number to alert other departments to be on the look out for stolen bikes," said the chief.

Macaluso addition stalled once again

Despite a written agreement between Joseph Macaluso and Joseph Haskoor for the purchase of property for additional parking, the Board of Adjustment has postponed decision on this matter for one more month. The application is for an addition to Macaluso's Restaurant, 160-161 Rea Avenue. The matter was heard at the June session and held over until July 18 in order for Macaluso to present a written document to assure the acquisition of property from Haskoor to provide for necessary parking.

An issue was raised by board member Ray Hallock about the contract between Macaluso and Haskoor. He contended that there was nothing preventing the restaurant owner for purchasing the property and selling it to someone else instead of using the area for parking spaces.

John Spizzirri, attorney for J.M. Inc., the corporation that owns Macaluso's, explained that the borough's construction official would have the authority to close the restaurant if the conditions of the proposed variance were not met.

Hallock, who said he had a "gut feeling" about the whole issue, suggested that Haskoor grant a title transfer to the property prior to the construction of the Macaluso addition. Mr. Spizzirri responded that Mr. and Mrs. Haskoor were not ready to sell right now and the contract was written to take effect in a maximum of two years.

Hallock stated that if Macaluso gained title, he could lease the property back to Haskoor until he decided to move. The attorney told the board that the two parties would need time to discuss this issue further.

Another discussion of the Macaluso case was a presentation of the parking sketch, as prepared by architect Bernard Di Paola.

He showed a plan with 10 spaces on property leased from the railroad; 25 spaces on property leased from Van Der Ems on Fourth Avenue; nine spaces on property owned by J.M. Inc. Di Paola told the board that he had spoken to Mr. Rogers of the Passaic County Planning Board, who approved the plan subject to a review of the grades. He indicated that there are six spaces along Rea Avenue that the county does not approve.

The Haskoor property would provide another 20 spaces, but Haskoor indicated that the use could not begin until he and his wife moved. Macaluso told the board he intended to demolish the house where Haskoor resides for construction of a parking lot.

James Evers, attorney to the Adjustment Board, suggested that the stub of Rea Avenue be kept unobstructed for fire trucks and other emergency vehicles. He indicated that the borough may have to pass an ordinance prohibiting parking along this section.

Board president Albert La Barre again brought up the issue of whether the problem could be resolved by a second story addition instead of the proposed first floor expansion.

Mr. De Paola responded that the beams would be unable to support the live load that would be created by the restaurant traffic.

Federal grant rumors:

Mayor answers seniors

A throng of senior citizens converged at the July 20th meeting of the Board of Commissioners to air various rumors surrounding the application of federal funds for a community center. The local facility would consist of an addition to the Hawthorne Public Library for which the borough is slated to receive $765,000 from the Public Works Employment Act. All the rumors were dispelled by Mayor Louis Bay, who answered the seniors with some colorful rhetoric.

The first question was raised by Mrs. Emma Croughan of 128 Third Avenue. She wanted to know if the grant would completely cover the cost of construction for the project. The mayor responded that he was not sure.

The woman then questioned whether the facility would be open to all senior citizens from the area. The mayor answered that this project would not be in cooperation with anyone. "This facility is purely for Hawthorne."

Charles Kara of 22 Third Avenue brought up a rumor about the Board of Education requesting a portion of the federal funds.

"The Board of Education had a bona fide right to a portion of the money" answered the mayor. "The way the bill was written they had a right to grab some of the fund. However the school board voted 6-2 to give up their right and I would like to express a public 'thank you' to the board members who passed this resolution. We stepped aside for the school board when they attempted to get money from the county for the Goffe Hill Road project," he stated.

"The money all comes out of the people's pocket" continued Mayor Bay. "We're in the clear now and we're waiting for the money so we can advertise for bids. When this grant was announced in March, there were 900 unemployed residents out of 8200 employable people in the borough. This shows that everyone doesn't have a big pocketful of dough."

A rumor that the money would be given to the school board to build a school at the pumphouse was stated by Gertrude Weits of 22 Taylor Avenue.

"You're presuming that this information is correct," exclaimed the mayor. "Anyone who told you that is a nut."

The women countered, "Then there's a awful lot of nuts in Hawthorne."

"If there's a willing listener, a bull thrower will continue to throw his bull, Mayor Bay responded. "I'm telling you that this is absolutely not true. When it comes to looking out for senior citizens, this administration has been frugal. We've given the necessities, but not the frills. I've seen stupid gossip get around and I'm happy to report that the senior citizens are mature enough not to heed the rumors."

Lillian Vanderbeck of 64 Eighth Avenue had a broader question. "You promised John Tomshe 20 years ago that something would be done for the senior citizens. (Tomshe was the first president of the Golden Harvesters) Nothing has been done," she charged.

"This is a good administration. We have been burning the midnight oil to see that everything is being taken care of. Let's have a definite understanding. I can't pave the streets with gold for senior citizens to walk on. As decent self-respecting public officials, we have held the taxes down," he lectured.

Then he put an end to the discussion with this remark. "Back in the days of Caesar, they used to say, 'The bad man does lives after him and the good is interred with his bones.'"

Moped action taken

At long last, the New Jersey State Senate has taken action to regulate mopeds. The moped is a useful and economical vehicle for certain road conditions. For example, policemen in New York City can cover an entire park in three minutes, where it previously took half an hour to walk from one end to the other.

The proposed law, which has yet to be considered by the Assembly, requires moped operators to be 15-years-old and take both written and road tests, issued by the motor vehicle division. It also prohibits mopeds on highways where the speed is more than 50 miles an hour and provides the motor vehicle director the right to prohibit their traffic on roads of more than 40 miles an hour, if he finds it hazardous. It also forbids passengers on a moped.

The most important, if controversial, provision is the requirement to carry liability insurance. Mopeds are not covered under automobile or homeowner's insurance. If an uninsured teenager runs into a child, who pays for hospital or medical bills? Under present law, no one is sure where the teenager's liability ends and where the parents' begins.

One of the three senators who voted against this bill raised an interesting point when he doubted whether insurance companies would write liability coverage for 15-year-old operators. This remains to be seen, but the state insurance commissioner does have some authority in this matter, since he is the one who must set minimum standards for liability coverage.

At any rate, the action taken by the state senate is laudable. Since 15-year-olds have been allowed to drive mopeds in New Jersey, five teenagers deaths have resulted. That's reason enough to take action.

Opposes Girgenti's appointment

The Hawthorne Press
P.O. Box 1
Hawthorne, New Jersey

Dear Editor:

I noticed in a July 14 newspaper an article announcing the appointment of John Girgenti as the director of the Passaic County Mental Health Board at an annual salary of $18,500.00. I had previously noticed a newspaper article which appeared on June 23 with the headline "Girgenti has Lead for Job", which sets forth that there were more than 200 applicants for this job.

I find it very hard to believe that Mr. Girgenti was the most qualified of the 200 applicants for this position, as I know that he has no medical training or educational background in the field of mental health.

Could Mr. Girgenti's chief qualification for this $18,500 a year job be the fact that he is the President of the Passaic County Young Democrats? Or is his chief qualification the fact that he is the former campaign manager for the chairman of the Passaic County Democratic Organization? Perhaps his chief qualification for this job is the fact that he is the Hawthorne Democratic City Leader.

It seems that the Democratically controlled Board of Freeholders is more concerned with Mr. Girgenti's political activities on their party's behalf than they are with his qualifications for this job. I, for one, resent the fact that $18,500.00 of my hard earned tax money is being used to reward someone for his political activity.

I noticed that Mr. Girgenti is also a candidate for Assembly from the 35th District. If this is Mr. Girgenti's idea of "public service" then I do not intend to vote for him, and I strongly urge my fellow taxpayers that they limit his future "public service" by soundly defeating him at the polls in November.

Even more serious than the obvious political games which are being played is the fact that there are many mentally retarded and disabled people who genuinely need the services of the Passaic County Mental Health Board. These people and all our citizens deserve a professional as the head of the board, not someone whose only qualification is his previous political activities. I hope the voters wake up, for if they don't, they will receive exactly the government they deserve.

Very truly yours,
Henry Mastronardi

Warning issued about substitute Medicare cards

Metal or plastic cards sold by some manufacturers are no substitute for official Medicare cards, according to Andrew J. Gessner, Social Security district manager in Paterson, New Jersey.

"The Social Security Administration mails official Medicare cards to people who have the protection," Gessner said. "You should always show your official card when you receive services covered by Medicare."

"It's a good idea to carry your Medicare card when you're away from home," Gessner said. If you lose it, you should immediately ask the people at any social security office to get you a new one.

Medicare helps pay the health care expenses of people 65 or over, of disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months or more, and of many people with permanent kidney failure.

The program is explained in detail in Your Medicare Handbook, which is mailed to people who have the protection. Copies are available at any social security office.

Caballeros, Muchachos exhibit Friday

By Ron Phillips
An outstanding senior-junior drum and bugle corps exhibition will be held on tomorrow evening, when the national champion Hawthorne Caballeros and Muchachos entertain their Passaic-Bergen area fans here at Hawthorne High's Allison N. King Field.

The two corps will put on their 14-minute musical and marching shows for the benefit of their sponsors, American Legion Post 199 of Hawthorne. Bob Beattie, commander of the post who also marches as sabreman with the Caballeros front section line, said that the exhibition will start at 8:30 pm.

"It is a free exhibition by the two top-notch marching-manuevering units," remarked Beattie. "However, donations towards helping American Legion Post 199 will be accepted at the gates," said Beattie.

The Caballeros have won eight of nine Drum Corps Associates (DCA) contests this season. They'll be competing in Suffern, N.Y.,

Bobby Collins is a featured soloist in the 1977 Caballeros repertoire.

the National American Legion and 28 time New Jersey legion titleholders, have won titles this season at New Brunswick, Teaneck, Hamden, Conn., Bridgeport's Barnum Festival, Hershey, Pa., Rochester, N.Y., Johnstown, N.Y., and at Providence, R.I.

Gene Marotta, George Del Monte and Bobby Collins will be performing their solos "in concert" as the Cabbies once again return home to Hawthorne to "salute the hometown fans."

The North Jersey Log Burners held their monthly meeting at the Wanderswood Camping Grounds in Summitville, New York.

A buffet supper was held followed by the monthly meeting which was called to order by President Ed Leonard.

After the meeting a surprise birthday party was given in honor of the club's oldest member Mrs. Kate Knapp, better known to her C.B. buddies as Galloping Grandma.

A pancake breakfast was also held. All members ate a well balanced breakfast thanks to our head cook Mrs. Betty Knapp and her assistant Mrs. Elma Weidner.

A determined Richie Eulich edged runnerup Wayne Reutimann and Gary Balough in the 30-lap modified stock car feature race Saturday night at the Orange County Fair Speedway in Middletown. With Wayne and Balough at his heels the final 15 circuits of one of the most competitive races to date this year, Eulich drove flawlessly, holding off each and every challenge the two rebels had to offer.

Bobby Botcher was fourth followed by Tom Hager, Bobby Green, Walt Schubert, Del Buss, Frankie Schneider and Don Kreitz.

Winning his fifth feature event in the sportsman ranks was Kinnelon's Brett Hearn, driving his own #20, taking the lead on lap 17 for the victory. Finishing behind Hearn were Don Shepard, Jeff Yasinsac, Richie Smith, Jerry Howard and Midland Park's Larry Broisma.

George Ferguson racked up his 13th feature of the season, running away with the American Racing Drivers Club midget main event.

The 137th annual Orange County Fair begins Friday, July 29th, with stock car racing on tap for Saturday and a Wednesday night, August 3 show.

Nazareth Speedway hosted two feature races in each division Sunday, following the previous week's rainout. Gary Balough and Kevin Collins took the top spots in the modified ranks while Jeff Yasinsac snapped Brett Hearn's winning streak with a victory in the rained out feature and Larry Broisma copped his first Nazareth win in the regularly scheduled event.

Balough, taking the lead on lap 28 of the first feature, went on to edge runnerup Bobby Botcher, Wayne Reutimann, Kevin Collins and Richie Eulich. Trailing Collins, who ran away with the regularly scheduled main, were Sandy Rochelle, Sammy Beavers, Balough, Buzzie Reutimann, Wayne Reutimann and Danny Mitchell.

Hearn was runnerup to Yasinsac in the first sportsman event with Shelly Schoenberger, Richie Smith, Glenn Enhardt and Broisma trailing. Bryan Kantner followed winner Broisma in the second one with Enhardt, Smith and Rich Yetter behind.

Four win in track meet

Four members of the Hawthorne Recreation Track Team brought home ribbons from the 29th Annual Play-ground Olympics held in Montclair on July 20. Despite record-high temperatures, 34 communities from all parts of the state competed.

The hometown winners in their first year of competition were: Rich Garigliano, fifth place, junior boys; Sandy White, second place softball throw, midget girls; Glenn Johnson, third place, midget softball throw, boys; Kelly De Maio, intermediate girls fourth place in 100-yard dash and third place in standing long jump.

Geared for youths 11-15 years old, the olympics offered "low pressure" competition in the following events: 50 yard and 100 yard dash, softball throw for distance, softball pitch for accuracy, long jump (standing and running), basketball foul shooting and a 200 yard relay.

Don Bohnet, executive director of the New Jersey Playground Association, said that "These olympics promote sportsmanship among youth."

Golfers celebrate

A splash party and luncheon was the 19th hole enjoyed by Paramus Women Golfers in 102 degree temperatures last week. President Sue De Salvo was in charge of the festivities held at the home of Dot Sullivan of Ridgewood.

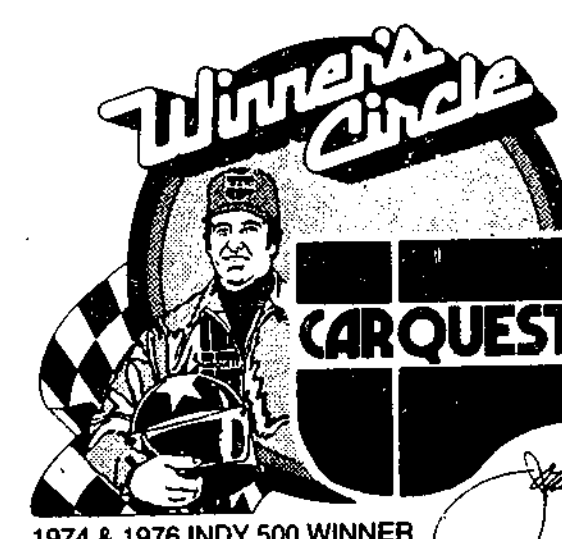

The event was to celebrate a 36-hole selected score 1/2 handicap net score president's tournament held at the Paramus course. Winners were A-flight first, Gloria Olund, 69; second, a tie between Elly Bowen and Julie Sihora, 72 1/2; B-flight, first, Renee Meyers, 69 1/2; Sue De Salvo, 75 1/2.

Summer recreation at the halfway mark

At the half way mark registration at the six centers is over 900. Attendance was below normal last week due to the hot and humid weather, but there were over 1400 youngsters who participated. Playgrounds are open daily Monday-Friday, 8:30 am - 1:30 pm. Evening hours at the high school are from 4:00 to 9:00 pm.

Arts and Crafts

Puppets, yo-yo's, banks, etc. are all part of the arts and crafts program. Each week a different craft is introduced to the children by the directors. On display this week will be the projects from Diamond Bridge Center. These crafts can be seen at Mercury Radio and T.V. on Diamond Bridge Avenue.

Bowling

Supervisors Brian Nolan and Susan Schuster have indicated that the bowling tournament will begin on Tuesday at the G.M.C. Lanes. The tournament will be divided into three divisions: midjet, juniors, and seniors and will continue until the last week of the program. Trophies will be given out at that time. There is still time to register for this competition.

Movies

Every Wednesday evening from 8:00 - 10:00 pm movies are shown outside at the Lincoln center. Over 110 boys and girls, 25 adults and Gus Schell attended last week. Walt Disney cartoons are shown. Rain date is the next clear night.

Met Game

Parent permission slips are available for the bus ride over to Shea Stadium to see the Mets play St. Louis. Five buses will be leaving on August 8. Tickets and bus transportation are provided by the Board of Recreation.

Coming attractions:
August 10 - Free ice cream day
August 17 - Track and field meet

Weekly contests were varied at the six centers last week. At Jefferson, there was a frisbee - throwing competition and winners were Chris Tighe, Grace Begyn and Dave Schuster. A scavenger hunt was held at the Roosevelt center with Janie Bosland the winner. Second and third place went to Sherrie Wexler and Dawn Landini. At the Diamond Bridge scavenger hunt, Arthur Nieskens won first place followed by Glenn Johnson and Anthony Puluse.

At Washington center, youngsters brought their stuffed animals to some stiff competition. Eric Manley's Tasmanian Devil was judged the fiercest. Jennifer Greenway's intellectual squirrel was voted most unusual. Mark and Matt Manley's Tweetie and Sylvester the Cat won for the cutest duo.

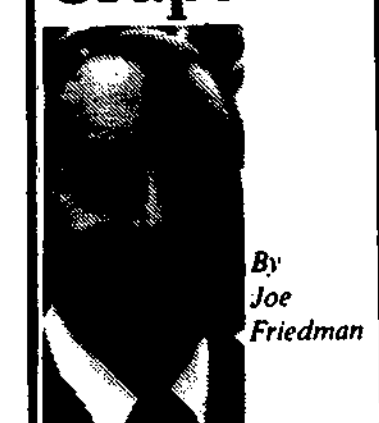

A bubble gum contest was held at the high school with three winners: Andrea Deyden, May Davenport and Amy Resch. Joey Calderone beat out two Orcuoli's for first place in a drawing contest at the Lincoln center. Leo Orcuoli won second place and Enzo Orcuoli, third.

A Yankee banner contest was also held at Lincoln center. Steve Pasquale and Matt Kaminski were the winners and Bob Pasquale was voted most enthusiastic at the Yankee game, which was attended by three busload of children on Friday. All had a good time except Lex Greenwood who was visibly upset by the Yankee 6-3 loss. The crowd witnessed three hits by Reggie Jackson and a homer by Greg Nettles despite the Yankees defeat.

In the inter-playground softball competition, Lambert's Loomies defeated Lincoln twice, 9-6 and 4-1. In junior games, Lincoln shut out Washington 8-0. In senior action, Lincoln trounced Roosevelt, 14-0.

The Grapevine

By Joe Friedman

One way to learn about wines is to taste them, and one of the most pleasant ways to taste wine is with the appropriate foods. Towards this end, Cellar in the Sky (part of New York's famed Windows on the World restaurant) offers a full-course dinner - with a different good wine served with each course.

The rooster seal on Chianti bottles is a guarantee of authenticity - but some of the biggest names in Chianti never joined the consorzio, feeling their names were guaranteed enough. And they are. You can depend on their quality.

Wineries are looking different today - even the most traditional vintners accept the superiority of stainless steel tanks for fermentation since they are cleaner. But wood is still being used for aging.

Some delights come from happy accidents. The head of a monastery in the Saumur area of France departed for a trip and left instructions that the grapes in the order's vineyards were not to be picked until he returned - he was delayed, and the grapes shriveled. When at last the grapes were picked, the wine turned out to be sweet and delicious.

Whiffle ball league begun at Boys Club

The whiffle ball league started last week at the Hawthorne Boys Club.

The Pirates edged the Red Sox by a score of 11-10. Ken Stager went four for four. He homered in the last inning with a man on to win the game. Ken Artoma also had three hits for the winners. Arnold Bellotti was the winning pitcher in relief. Dean Cupo and Anthony Puluse were the defensive stars.

The "Champs" Program is in its third week and Anthony Puluse is leading with 21 points. In second place, Clint Scheen and Ed McGee are tied with 20 points. Art Nieskens is in third (19 points). Upcoming events are the cross country run and basketball skills.

The Boys' Club wants to thank Mr. George Baldanzi of Fabric Corner for donating 20 tickets to see the Jersey Indians play. The next trip will be to see the Mets vs. the Cardinals on August 8.

The soccer clinic continues every Wednesday night at the club. Last week the boys learned ed heading and position play. Registration is still open. Teams will be picked in August and the league will start in September. The ages are 8-9, 10-12, and 13-15.

During September a new program will get underway at the club. Called "Be a Ham and Tune in the World," this program is for all ages, either sex. If interested, write: US L.R.A.R.C., P.O. Box 513, Hawthorne, NJ 07507.

Cooking class for this week will feature pizza. Movies are shown every Wednesday. Last week the boys saw "The Joe Lewis Story".

Next week's projects in arts and crafts are mail boxes, cutting boards and jewelry boxes. Volunteers are needed to help in programs at the club.

Camping starts next week. Thanks are extended to the Fideles of America, whose summer camp in North Haledon, the Hawthorne boys will be attending.

Summer school concludes August 5th

When summer school concludes on August 5, it will mark the end of the borough's first non-tuition program. A total of 402 students attended this year's session with enrollment divided as follows: elementary remedial reading, 57; elementary remedial math, 68; high school English make-up, 30; high school history make-up, 30; high school mathematics make-up, 20; supplemental instruction, 12; instrumental music, 34; science, 36; driver education 78 and Title I, 37.

In addition to the change mandated by the state which prohibits charging tuition, another change was in effect. Regulations from the State Department of Education require that students enrolled in remedial classes must be recommended by the school principal. According to the superintendent of schools, the new procedure caused a delay in planning and organization. Priorities had to be established by the principals and parental approval had to be received.

A total of 20 teachers were hired for the 1977 program plus the school principal and school secretary. The staff consists of Robert Appaluccio, Frank Krueger, Wallace Masiak, Mary Gomes and Gail Robinson, high school make-up; Sharon Beckwith, Margaret Novicki, John Cilio, remedial math; Carol Denise, Lynne Vander Veer, Patricia Confrancesco, remedial reading; Lois De Frank, Joan Merics, Irene Marsh, supplemental instruction; Randolph Wall, Albert Lutkins, Julia Zimmerman, driver education; Bradley Lakefield, science enrichment; Richard Conti, instrumental music; Margaret Ferguson and Cynthia Baskinger, title I. All teachers are paid at the rate of $7 per hour.

How much life insurance is enough?

The answer differs for every person. Enough life insurance depends on how much monthly income your family would need if you weren't around to support them... and how much income you want at retirement if you live. Let me help you determine how much is right for you.

I thought that I would share some of the more amusing answers to our last fill in the blank with you. The winner of the contest was Janis Grifer of Passaic with her answer—"If I ever brought Kiss over to my house for dinner, my parents would Split Fire". Another amusing fill-in came from Claudia Foster of Englewood saying "my parents would Benelli". Thanks to all that took the time to write in. Recently caught a great new production of the show "Butterflies Are Free" in N.Y.C. Several of the new actors and actresses deserve special mention including Jelaune Miles, Kale Brown, Miranne Marshall, and Craig Stocum. They were nothing short of delightful and their director, John Werkheiser showed great imagination. To the whole show, I say "Bravo". Up until now, in the 32 year history of the Billboard charts only two artists have had five records on the charts simultaneously - they are Frank Sinatra and Johnny Mathis. But now there is a new addition to this list - Barry Manilow. All five of Manilow's albums are on the charts and his current live record is #1. That is quite a credit! Governor Jerry Brown of California has appointed singer Helen Reddy to the State Highway Commission. Lindsey Wagner made her singing debut on the Johnny Carson show the other night and she wasn't too bad. Needless to say, she isn't Barbra Streisand but she held her own. It's true. As we reported in a previous column, you can purchase Genuine Peanut Sacks from Jimmy and Billy Carter's Peanut Farm. They are being sold to the public and also to small retailers. For info: Write: M. Friedman Specialty Co., P.O. Box 5777, Baltimore, MD 21208. Yes will be at Madison Square Garden, August 5-7. The five top grossing films in the country are The Deep, Star Wars, New York, New York, The Other Side of Midnight, Sorcerer. Word has it that filming for Charlie's Angels is going fine without FF-M. Unlike his wife, Lee Majors will be back on TV this fall as the Six Million Dollar Man. One of the most important young singer-songwriters Melissa Manchester has just released a new album called Singin' on Arista Records. After only one listen, I can tell you it is excellent. We still have a few remaining autographed photos of Frank Sinatra. Send $2.50 per photo to: Spotlites, 201 Cross St., Fort Lee, NJ 07024.

"Tricks of the Trade" scheduled for August 2-7

William Shatner and Yvette Mimieux will star in "Tricks of the Trade", the new psychological thriller by Sidney Michaels at the Playhouse on the Mall, Bergen Mall, Paramus, Tuesday, August 2 through Sunday, August 7.

Playwright Michaels is giving few clues to the plot, but promises a "love story of a sort" about a young and beautiful woman who enters a psychiatrist's office and becomes his patient. In a year of meetings, the two duel in a deadly game playing out in microcosm, the relationship between man and woman. Three people die, and in the end has the winner won? Or the loser lost? Sidney Michaels who knows, won't tell.

It's an evening of drama at its most exciting — psychological pining and the ball is loaded with nitroglycerin.

Michaels who was born in New York City where his father managed Minkey's and the old Howard Burlesque theatres, has written a host of plays including "The Plaster Bambino" for which he won the 1959 Ford Foundation award. In 1962 he began a series of Broadway successes with "Tchin, Tchin" starring Anthony Quinn and Margaret Leighton. He followed that in 1964 with "Dylan", starring Sir Alec Guinness who won a Tony award in the title role. Michael's Broadway credits also include the musical "Ben Franklin in Paris" and "Applause". He has in addition many film and television credits including the MGM film "Key Witness" and, appropriately, "The Night They Raided Minsky's".

William Shatner who will co-star in the two-character drama, is known around the globe for his role as Captain Kirk of "Star Trek's" starship Enterprise. In the celebrated TV series, Shatner stood out for his portrayal of a leader who was in command of every situation, yet in touch with his own emotions and unafraid to express tenderness and compassion.

Born in Montreal, Canada, Shatner worked his way through McGill University as a Canadian Broadcasting Company personality, went on to three years work with the National Repertory Theatre of Ottawa, and then joined the famous Stratford, Ontario Shakespeare Festival. From that base, the versatile actor went on to regular performances on dramatic showcases such as "Playhouse 90", major motion pictures such as "The Brothers Karamazov" and "Judgement at Nuremberg", before signing on for "Star Trek" which remained in production for more than four years.

He has since starred in his own TV series "Barbary Coast", has narrated "Universe", the NASA documentary nominated for an Academy Award, and last year toured 43 cities with his own one-man show. His forthcoming film "Kingdom of the Spiders" is slated for release this summer, and he has most recently completed a syndicated TV series "Breakaway" dealing with devil sports.

Shatner will co-star at the Playhouse on the Mall with Yvette Mimieux, an actress who brings to the stage and screen a combination of great beauty and exciting acting ability.

Her recent roles have ranged from the critically acclaimed "Jackson County Jail" to the upcoming NBC pilot of "The Busters" in which she plays a deputy marshal in the Seattle of the 1880's. Her film credits include "Light in the Piazza", "Diamondhead", "Three in the Attic", and the television film "Hit Lady" for which she wrote the screenplay. Born in Los Angeles, she joined a Hollywood Theatre group at the age of 15, and made her first film "Time Machine" at the age of 16. Although best known for her television and screen work, Miss Mimieux has performed such outstanding works as Andre Gide's "Persephone" in French at the Stravinsky Festival in New York.

Jules Feiffer's "Knock, Knock" now at Summerfun Theatre

Summerfun Summer Theatre, New Jersey's largest resident professional new-show-every-week summer stock company presents Jules Feiffer's "Knock, Knock" directed by Stephen Coy now through Saturday evening, July 30 at 8:30 pm. "Knock, Knock," presented in Memorial Auditorium, Montclair State College, Upper Montclair, N.J. is Summerfun's fifth production of the season.

Jules Feiffer—of comic strip fame—has come up with the recipe for a perfect farcical-comedy. The main ingredients are two salty, old Jewish recluses reminiscent of the Odd Couple. Season them with a splash of Mephisto, add a dash of Groucho Marx, and a lightly spiced Joan of Arc, topped with a sprinkling of heavenly voices and what have you got? "Knock, Knock" ... a kooky, laugh-saturated miracle play... (Time). It is a comedy you'll be talking about long after you have left the theatre.

Frank DeChillo will be appearing in Feiffer's Knock, Knock as Cohen, Glenn R. Czako as Abe, and Christopher Olsen as Wiseman. Joan will be played by Karen Primack. For information and reservations call the box office at (201) 746-9120.

Moped regulations passed by New Jersey Senate

A bill to require moped operators to be licensed and to carry liability insurance passed the New Jersey State Senate Monday by a vote of 23-3. The law must now go to the assembly for consideration.

Some of the provision of the bill are as follows:

- All moped operators must be 15 years and older.

- All must take a written and road test issued by the motor vehicles division.

- No moped can operate on a highway where the speed is more than 50 miles an hour, and the motor vehicle director could bar them from roads with speeds of over 40 miles an hour if he finds it hazardous for mopeds.

- No moped operator could carry a passenger. Only one person would be allowed on the moped.

- Each moped operator would have to carry liability insurance coverage at minimum limits set by the commissioner of insurance.

Currently all motor vehicles, trucks, and motorcycles must carry liability insurance coverage of $15,000/$30,000 limits, but the bill would allow the insurance commissioner to set a lower limit if he so finds.

- The bill would allow for the issuance of a learner's permit to a moped operator that would be good for 45 days but it would restrict the operator to driving during daylight hours only.

The 5,000 member Independent Insurance agents of New Jersey (IIANJ) was one of the groups which called for strong laws regulating motorized bicycles. Richard C. Hardenbergh of Haddonfield, IIANJ president, stated: "More than a year ago we urged the legislature to regulate teen-age use of the mopeds. Yet since these vehicles were legalized, six riders have been killed and five of them were only 15 years old."

He said the IIANJ and other safety-minded groups have pressed for a law requiring an age minimum of 17, wearing a crash helmet, carrying proper insurance, and licensing as an auto or motorcycle driver.
