JUNE Hellspot decision
before Supreme Ct.

The New Jersey Supreme Court has agreed to review a decision by Hawthorne leaving the combination of a helipad for gift shops & a helipad for the local police, unless it found a case or a judge who joined by the New York Court of Appeals. A month later, the court was joined by the New York Department of Transportation.

The case gained the favor of a helipad, leaving the combination of an impropriety in the December 13 hearing in the courtroom. The combination, known as "privileged parking," was held to apply
the New York Department of Transportation.

The court ruled that the use of a helipad was necessary to accommodate the needs of airports. A similar decision was made in another case, where a similar decision was made in another
case, where a similar decision was made in another

How much life insurance is enough?

The answer varies for every person. In general, the insurance needs are not as great if you do not have a family to support. However, if you have children or dependents, you may require more coverage. It is important to consult with a financial advisor to determine the appropriate amount of life insurance for your situation.

Girl scouts honor Carol Lee Spagars

At a recent meeting of the Hawthorne Girl Scout Association at the Imperial Palace Restaurant, a special presentation was made to Carol Lee Spagars by all the members present. The presentation was in recognition of her outstanding service and leadership in the Girl Scout movement.

Carol Lee Spagars was honored for her dedication and hard work in serving the Girl Scouts of the nation. She has been a dedicated member of the organization for many years and has made significant contributions to the program.

The presentation included a beautiful bouquet of flowers, a plaque, and a letter of appreciation from the Girl Scout leaders. The plaque recognized her as a "Role Model" for other Girl Scout leaders and members.

The assembly was a true example of the Girl Scout spirit, with members of all ages coming together to celebrate the achievements of one of their own. It was a fitting tribute to a woman who has dedicated her life to the Girl Scouts and inspired others to follow in her footsteps.
Don't let those friends become energy enemies.

Two-sense modernists are always saying, "But they can become enemies!" On the one hand, they want to operate efficiently. On the other hand, they want to protect the planet. So they have to find a way to do both.

Your water heater's greedy for energy. It uses up 15% of your total energy bill and 50% of your hot water. But there's a simple way to fix that.

Just replace your old water heater with an electric model.

Your water heater's greedy for energy. It uses up 15% of your total energy bill and 50% of your hot water. But there's a simple way to fix that.

Just replace your old water heater with an electric model.

You can save energy and money by choosing an electric water heater. Here's how:

1. Install an Energy-Efficient Water Heater
   - Choose a model that has an efficiency rating of 95% or higher.
   - Look for a tankless water heater, which can save up to 30% more energy than a traditional tank.

2. Lower Your Hot Water Temperature
   - Set your water heater's temperature to 120°F. This is plenty hot for most people and saves energy.

3. Use a Water Heater Blanket
   - A blanket can keep your water heater from losing heat, which saves energy.

4. Fix Leaks
   - Leaks can waste energy. Fix any leaks you find.

5. Replace Your Old Water Heater
   - If your water heater is old and inefficient, replace it with a new, energy-efficient model.

6. Keep Your Water Heater Clean
   - Regular maintenance can help your water heater run efficiently.

7. Check Your Water Softener
   - Water softeners can save energy by reducing the amount of water you need to heat.

8. Use a Manual Faucet Valve
   - A manual valve can help prevent unnecessary water use.

9. Fix Leaking Faucets
   - Leaking faucets waste water and energy.

10. Use a Smart Thermostat
    - A smart thermostat can help you save energy by controlling your water heater's temperature.

By taking these steps, you can help reduce your energy usage and save money on your energy bills. So don't let your friends become energy enemies. Start saving today!

We Get What We Pay For

by John W. Gardner

I say Congress should have its pay raise. Do you disagree? Read on.

You are not reading the opinions of a giant Communist; I have criticized capitalism vigorously and bitterly with as much frequency and intensity as anyone in the country. But for us to deny Congress a pay raise would be to behave in an idiotic manner. And I say that with respect.

Every four years the President is by law required to present a State of the Union message to Congress, and every two years the Congress must file a budget with the President. And the President has a right to an opinion about the budget and the issues Congress is to consider.

But for us to deny Congress a pay raise would be to behave in a bureaucratic manner. And I say that with respect.

Every four years the President is by law required to present a State of the Union message to Congress, and every two years the Congress must file a budget with the President. And the President has a right to an opinion about the budget and the issues Congress is to consider.

Next Sunday, pay Dad back for all those times it hurt him more than it hurt you.

If you've ever wondered where all the time went, now you know. And you've probably been wondering how to handle it.

As in Father's Day, when Dad was a good job and did something surprising to go to church.

If you've ever got yourself into any trouble, here's an idea for you. If you're still alive, give him a Mother's Day card.

And don't forget to say "Happy Birthday" to your own dad, if you haven't.

Citizens
To The Rescue!

by John W. Gardner

The energy crisis is real, and apparently dangerous. How we handle it will largely affect our future as a nation, and the future of our community.

But it's also a need for action, and we're not hesitating badly over it. So it's not a question of whether or not we should respond. The question is how we should respond. Here's where it's a tough one. The solutions are complex, and solutions must be implemented. We hope we're not going to have to gloss over the solutions.

Under the circumstances, everyone has to figure out a program that would be best for everyone and would achieve the most good. That's the decision we've made. We've chosen to sponsor a program. That's a big decision, but every special interest is of help in some way or other. We do not make decisions that will cause harm, and the aid required must be reasonable.

One can disagree with our program to endorse a program that would be in the best interest of the community. We're not asking for everyone to agree, but we're willing to listen.

Instead, we are setting up a program that we think is best for everyone. Everyone is welcome to join us in this program. Everyone is welcome to participate in this program. Everyone is welcome to contribute to this program.
