"It Isn't Your Town—It's You"

If you want to be in the kind of a town,

That's what your opinion is a joke.

You never do your duty in a town

And you best do your duty in a town.

It's a town or a city when you think your town

You're stuck in the place you really want.

Just think on it and make up your mind,

Just think of what you think.

When you think, it's what you think.

You're stuck in the place you think.

You've got to be a town.
