The minorial service at the monoment was short and sweet Glifton Legion Cadets put on a good show and we must take our hats off to our own V.F.W. junior Drum Corps, they got a big hand. Past County Commander Whit ford was the officer of the day. The firing and his talk on the was the principle speaker, and his talk on Americanism was short and sweet ford was the officer of the day. The firing squad of the V.F.W. Junior Drum Corps, thread out in fall dress, and the toys sure looked good. They furnished the color to the show. The wreaths were placed at the monument while taps was splayed by John Petty. Ray Whit ford gave a short address and I

As usual our annual Armistice
Dinner Dance was a huge success.
It will not be forgotten for some time. The writer was not wrong when he said that a treat was in the Hawthorne Comrads who gave their lives in the World War.

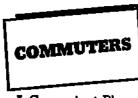

I again reneat those names. when he said that a treat was in store for those who dance. The Deauville Club 10 piece orchestra made the feet, of even those who didn't dance, tingle. Boy! "What an orchestra." I'll miss my guess, if they don't go places. The party broke up at 2 A. M.

We were up bright and early Sunday morning to attend the joint memorial service at 8:30 A. M. at St. Anthony's church. In trying to describe this service, words fail mr. The V.F.W. and the Legion came out looking their best and everyone attending this service will agree with me, that, they never saw anything more beautiful, more impressive, and more colonful. The military portion of the service was under the Legion has work to do. Let's get.
