Voters parallel Reagan win as 80% vote here

November 9, 1980

President Ronald Reagan's campaign votes were in local confirmation ceremonies and final results with Reagan at the forefront.

Run-up to election: The campaign focused on the economy, with Reagan promising tax cuts and a strong emphasis on national security.

Key figures: Reagan, the incumbent, faced liberal challenger Walter Mondale. Reagan's campaign was led by his vice president, George H.W. Bush, and his running mate, Gary Hart.

Reagan won the state with a decisive margin of 54.6% to 45.4% for Mondale.

GOP romps to victory

Prospect Park-Lodi Republican candidates for mayor, Edward Demazure and grandson Patrick Johnson, were re-elected in Lodi on Tuesday with a landslide victory. Domenico received 1,310 votes (25.1%) to 940 for Bush (17.5%).

Reagan's strong showing in this rural area was attributed to his emphasis on national security and his proposal to cut taxes.

Preliminary results indicated Reagan won the state with a decisive margin of 54.6% to 45.4% for Mondale.

editorial

Voters deserve praise for the overwhelming turnout on Tuesday decide the presidential election. The turnout for the election was one of the highest in recent years.

The election was not only a reflection of the voters' allegiance to their country, but also a testament to the hard work and dedication of the campaigns. The G.O.P. and the D.S.P. both worked hard to ensure that their candidates received the support of the voters.

The G.O.P. candidates were successful in their efforts, and the D.S.P. candidates were also able to gain a significant number of votes.

The American people must be commended for their participation in the election process. They showed that they care about the future of their country and are willing to take the time to cast their votes. The turnout for the election was a symbol of their commitment to democracy.

Transfer of band director to grammar school has parents upset

November 8, 1988

Dear Editor

We, the undersigned parents of students at Hawthorne High School, would like to bring to your attention a situation that is very concerning to us.

The current band director at the school is Mr. John Doe. He has been doing a great job of keeping the students engaged and interested in the band. However, it has come to our attention that Mr. Doe may be transferred to a grammar school in the near future.

This is causing a lot of concern among the parents and students. We believe that Mr. Doe's experience and skills are invaluable to the band program at the high school.

It is important to us that our children have a strong and experienced band director who can guide them in their musical endeavors.

We urge you to consider our concerns and take action to ensure that Mr. Doe remains at Hawthorne High School.

Sincerely,

The Hambone

November 8, 1988

Dear Editor

The Hambone newspaper is once again putting out a great edition of the week with articles that are both informative and entertaining.

The coverage of the recent musical performance by the school band is particularly noteworthy. The students put a lot of hard work into this performance, and it was well-received by the audience.

Keep up the good work, Hambone!

Dear Editor

I’m writing to express my disappointment with the recent issue of the Hambone newspaper.

The content seemed repetitive and lacked originality. I’m hoping that you will take this feedback seriously and make changes to improve the quality of the future issues.

Thank you for your attention.

Films depict local history

On Monday evening, November 14th, at 7:30 p.m., the Caisey Boy School Auditorium will house the first of the two films being presented as part of the "Films Depict Local History" series. The show is called "Films Depict Local History."

The two films chosen for this event include "The Black Stallion," directed by Robert Bresson, and "The Saint of Bleecker Street," directed by Ken Russell.

Both films are of significant historical importance and will be shown in their original English language versions. The screening of these films is sponsored by the local historical society and is expected to attract a large audience.

Tickets are available at the school's main office and are priced at $10 per adult and $5 per child.
School board re-takes vote to defend Medici

By Donna Schrier

Responding to calls of the board's open public meeting act, the Board of Directors in North Highlands held their April meeting, and a vote was taken to defend the Medici building. Positive Action Defense (PAD) was formed with the intention to take legal action and organize a campaign. "We cannot let this stand," said a member of the crowd. "We are fighting for our children."

According to Ms. Schrier, the meeting was attended by more than 50 people. "The board was presented with a petition of more than 2,000 signatures," she said. "We are here to support the families who have been impacted." The board then voted to proceed with an appeal of the decision to defend the Medici building.

Lawrence Schwartz to defend board

"We have noticed a lot of things that didn't make sense," said Ms. Schwartz. "There are discrepancies in the information provided by the board. We want the board to be transparent and accountable." The board was asked to provide the full details of the appeal process, including any evidence or documents that were used.

The board was then presented with a motion to establish a committee to review the current process and ensure that all stakeholders are informed.

Petretta testimonial planned for Nov. 29

"I am here to support the board and the community," said Ms. Petretta. "We need to work together to ensure that our children are safe and protected." The board was asked to consider ways to improve communication and ensure that all voices are heard.

Prospect Park: Home discounts for military personnel

"Prospect Park offers a discount for military personnel who are active duty or retired," said Ms. Hall. "We want to thank those who serve our country and provide them with additional support." The board was asked to consider ways to offer more discounts and support to our service members.

Ambulance corps needs daytime volunteers

For 49 years, the William G. Mackenzie Ambulance Corps has been serving the emergency medical transportation needs of our community. Born on Memorial Day in 1933, the corps was named in honor of the Reverend William G. Mackenzie, former pastor of St. Clement's Episcopal Church.

Unlike area towns which have municipal or fire department corps similar to local volunteer fire departments, the Mackenzie Ambulance Corps is primarily a group of volunteers who supervise the operation and establish policies under which the corps operates.

Dismayed over bd. president’s attitude

The Paradise Press, November 13, 1983

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to a letter which appeared in The Paradise Press on November 3rd. I was deeply troubled by the attitude displayed by the president of the Board of Directors towards the membership. It seems that he is more concerned with personal matters than with the welfare of the organization.

Respectfully yours,

Honor for Vietnam veterans

On Veterans’ Day, last November 11, the American Legion Post #116 of Paradise held a ceremony to honor the Vietnam veterans and active duty service members. The event included a procession from the Post to the Veteran’s Memorial Park, where a wreath-laying ceremony was held. The keynote speaker was a Vietnam veteran who shared personal stories of his service and the impact it had on his life.

Girls’ field hockey team ends the season with a tie

November 13, 1982

Hawthorne High School girls’ field hockey team tied Ramsey High School 1-1 on Saturday. The tie gave the Devils their second loss of the season.

The Devils, who have never lost at home, had won their previous two against Wood-Ridge and Pompton Lakes. Their only other tie came against Paramus on Oct. 8.

Hawthorne and Ramsey played a closely contested first half, with neither team able to capitalize on their scoring opportunities. In the second period, Ramsey’s Linda Brimmer scored on a penalty shot, but Hawthorne’s Maryann O’Donnell equalized on a breakaway.

The Devils’ defense, led by Barbara Wiegand, prevented Ramsey’s offense from taking advantage of their scoring chances. The game was a hard-fought battle, with both teams playing to win.

Math honors club considered

November 13, 1982

Hawthorne High School Principal Henry Keene is considering the establishment of a math honor society at the school. The society would be similar to the science and English honor societies already in existence.

The math honor society would be open to students who have maintained a high level of achievement in their math courses. Membership would be based on grades rather than talent, and members would be expected to maintain their academic excellence.

The principal is currently researching the feasibility of the idea and will make a decision soon.

Inhouse processing of hazardous waste discussed

November 13, 1982

The Hawthorne school board discussed the issue of hazardous waste disposal at its meeting on Monday. The board is considering the implementation of an inhouse processing system to handle the disposal of hazardous waste within the school district.

The system would involve the collection of hazardous waste materials at various school locations, followed by the transportation to a central processing facility. The waste would then be disposed of in a manner that minimizes environmental impact.

The board is currently evaluating the feasibility and cost of the system and will make a decision on its implementation in the near future.
Not everyone who enters polling booth casts every possible vote

Joan Saxton

The Haworth Press

A common misconception is that anyone who enters a polling booth casts every possible vote. However, this is not always the case. There are various reasons why people may not vote, including indifference, lack of interest, or simply forgetting to vote. It is important to encourage everyone to participate in the democratic process by voting and to make sure they cast their ballots.

Prospect Park

Patter

Yes, Prospect Park is a beautiful and historic park that offers a variety of activities and attractions. It is a great place to spend a sunny day with family and friends. With its beautiful gardens, outdoor sculptures, and historic buildings, it's easy to see why it's a popular destination. However, it's also important to be aware of potential dangers, such as the presence of biting insects, to ensure a safe and enjoyable visit.

Prosecco heard on Monday

Firestone Tyres

Department store has featured Prosecco on its menu for the last few months, and it's been a hit with customers. The drink is a refreshing and flavorful addition to the store's offerings, and it's perfect for those looking to enjoy a glass while shopping. The store has also noted that sales of Prosecco have increased significantly since it was added to the menu.

Fuel-switching is no nickel-and-dime proposition

Radio Howie

When you think of fuel-switching, you might consider it a small inconvenience that can save you a few dollars. However, fuel-switching is a serious issue that can have a significant impact on the environment and our health. By choosing to use cleaner and more efficient fuels, we can reduce our carbon footprint and help ensure a more sustainable future.

The Great American Smokeout — give it a try for the week of November 20th

Today is the American Cancer Society's annual national observance of the Great American Smokeout. Now in its 18th year, this nationwide campaign is designed to get smokers to give up smoking for 24 hours. Each year, nearly 15 million smokers sign on to participate. By choosing to stop smoking for 24 hours, you can go on to do much more.

Great American Smokeout is as simple as "saying no" to the "habit" and replacing it with something positive. Smoking, compared to the benefits it offers, is a risky business. It is a choice and it is your health.

Rental of bus garage by school board prompts many questions

November 17th, 1970

Your November 13th story about the proposed bus garage rental to the county was headline news in this town. I feel that the bus garage proposals would be a benefit to the town. I understand that this is the first time the county has offered to rent a bus garage to a school district.

One issue that has been raised is the amount of money that the school district would receive for the rental. I believe that the proposed amount is fair and would be a benefit to the school district.

Another concern that has been raised is the potential impact on the town's economy. I believe that the rental of the bus garage would have a positive impact on the town's economy.

Overall, I believe that the rental of the bus garage is a positive move for the town. I support the proposal and encourage other residents to do the same.

Former copsman speaks out

November 17th, 1970

I recently visited the police station and was surprised to see a former copsman who had been there for over 20 years. He told me that he had been fired from the police department after a few years due to a misunderstanding.

It was clear that he was troubled by the incident and wanted to speak out. I believe that it is important to listen to these concerns and take action to prevent similar situations from occurring in the future.

I hope that the police department will take this incident seriously and work to improve the working conditions for its officers.

Hawthorne Soccer Association's season wraps up

The final games of the season were played this past weekend as the Hawthorne Soccer Association completed its season with a victory for the Boys Under 9 team. The team, comprising players from various age groups, played well throughout the season, displaying great teamwork and sportsmanship. The final game was held at the local park and drew a large crowd of fans to cheer on the young players. The defeated team, led by Coach John Doe, took home the championship trophy for their efforts. The next season will begin in the fall, and interested players are encouraged to register early to secure their spot on a team.
Prospect Park Patter

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the proposed development at Prospect Park. The park is a valuable community asset and I believe the proposed changes will negatively impact its aesthetic and recreational value. Please consider these points in your decision-making:

1. Historical Significance: Prospect Park has historical significance as a place where people gather to relax and enjoy the outdoors.
2. Environmental Impact: The proposed changes could lead to a loss of green space and affect local wildlife.
3. Community Input: It is important to gather input from all community members before making a decision.

I urge you to carefully consider these points before moving forward with the development plans.

Sincerely,

Changing fuels is more expensive than just a phone call.

Some say it's just the spectrum of bringing on-line new fuel into the pipeline and removing the old fuel, but that's not all. Introducing new fuel can cause operational issues, like changes in engine efficiency and emissions, which may require adjustments to the machinery. It also involves additional maintenance and monitoring to ensure the fuel system remains clean and functional. The transition to new fuels can also affect the performance and longevity of the equipment, requiring more frequent inspections and repairs. In the end, switching to new fuel can be a costly endeavor, impacting both the operation's financial stability and its environmental footprint.
Historical program scheduled at the Library November 24

Three men arrested for drug possession

By Tony Decker

After receiving multiple reports about several vehicles being driven in a subjective manner, Hawthorne police began a surveillance operation involving the vehicle of a known suspect. Following the reports, the officers tracked the suspect’s vehicle to a residence in the town and arrested three men.

Christopher J. Dwyer, 18, of the residence, and Cory J. Bonner, 18, of the town, were arrested on charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance.

Storeowners worry about Sunday opening change

Old Gal, this is a big one. It’s hard to believe that it’s only a few weeks until Christmas. But it’s happening whether we like it or not.

The change in the law that will affect you this year is the one that allows you to open your store for business on Sunday.

Store owners who want to stay open on Sunday will need to apply for a license from the Board of Health. The license will allow you to open your store on Sundays for the purpose of selling perishable goods.

Assault case referred to the grand jury

By Paul Rivas

The case of Steven William Sean, 24 Market Street, Leslie Kastner, charged with aggravated assault which has been named as the grand jury for a trial on Oct. 26.

The incident took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kastner, located at 24 Market Street. According to police reports, Mr. Sean and Mrs. Kastner had been arguing earlier in the evening, and during the argument, Mrs. Kastner, who was in the kitchen, reportedly threw a glass of water at Mr. Sean. Mr. Sean, who was allegedly in the process of leaving the residence, then became angry and began to punch Mrs. Kastner. Mrs. Kastner, who was reportedly injured, was taken to the hospital and treated for her injuries.

In the meantime, police arrived on the scene and arrested Mr. Sean. He was charged with assault and was held on a $500 bond. The case was later referred to the grand jury.

Postmaster Pat Mullen has issued a reminder to all local residents to ensure that their mail is delivered correctly by using the correct zip code.

"Please take a moment to check your mail and make sure that it is delivered properly," Mullen said. "It is important to use the correct zip code to ensure that your mail is delivered on time and to the correct address."
A letter to the editor:

Voyager 1 - a momentous occasion

A personal reflection on the momentous occasion of the Voyager 1 spacecraft leaving the Solar System.

Voyager 1, a probe launched by NASA in 1977, has been exploring the outer limits of our solar system for over 40 years. Its journey has taken it past the four outer planets of the solar system, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune. Now, Voyager 1 has left the heliosphere, the Sun's bubble of plasma and magnetic fields, and entered into the interstellar medium, a vast expanse of space filled with gas and dust.

Voyager 1's mission was to probe the outer limits of our solar system and to gather data about the planets and their moons. It has sent back countless images and data, including the breathtaking images of Jupiter's Great Red Spot and Saturn's rings.

But Voyager 1's mission is not over yet. It will continue to explore the interstellar medium, sending back data for decades to come. Its journey is a testament to human ingenuity and the power of science.

Thanksgiving Day in 1980 marked a significant milestone in the history of Thanksgiving.

The day was marked by a major event in the history of Thanksgiving. On that day, the first Thanksgiving Day parade was held in New York City. The parade featured floats, bands, and a variety of other attractions, and it was a huge success.

Since then, Thanksgiving Day parades have become a beloved tradition in many cities across the United States. They are a celebration of the spirit of giving and a reminder of the importance of gratitude.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Schedule for 1981 announced at Center Stage, Playhouse on Main

Earl Hambacher, artistic director of Center Stage, the professional theater on Main Street in Huntington, yesterday announced the schedule for the Center Stage Playhouse for the 1981 season. The announcement was made at a news conference held at the Playhouse, 102 Main St., Huntington. The Playhouse will open its season with "Lady Windermere's Fan," by Oscar Wilde, with performances March 21, 22 and 23.

Also scheduled to open the season will be "Barefoot in the Park," by Neil Simon, with performances April 18, 19 and 20. "A Christmas Carol," by Charles Dickens, will be presented Nov. 21, 22 and 23.

Other productions scheduled are "The Diary of Anne Frank," by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, with performances Dec. 19, 20 and 21.

Library survey

The Huntington Public Library will conduct a library survey on services provided by the library. The survey will be conducted in late January and early February, and will include a questionnaire to be mailed to 200 residents of the city's older adult population.

The survey is part of a library service improvement project, funded by a grant from the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources. The library is seeking the opinions of older adults on the services they receive from the library, and is interested in improving their services through feedback from this group.

Hearing on Haledon election

A hearing on the Haledon municipal election will be held to determine whether a recount of the votes cast in the election is necessary.

The recount is scheduled for Jan. 31, and will be conducted by the Board of Elections, which will verify the accuracy of the votes cast in the election. The recount will be conducted at the Haledon Library, located at 100 Main St., Haledon.

Ver Hage was the only witness at hearing

Ver Hage, the only witness at the hearing, testified that he was prevented from voting in the election due to a technical glitch with the voting machine.

Manchester Board in the red over increased tuition at vo-tech

December 11, 1980

By Donna Schoen

The Manchester Board of Education is in the red over its proposed tuition increase for vocational-technical students. At a special meeting Sunday night, the board voted 4-3 to raise the costs of the programs.

According to attendance cleri cially, students who attend the vo tech classes are charged $500 per term, which, after the adjustment, will rise to $550 per term.

The board is one of the few districts in the state that has not increased it tuition rates for vo-tech students.

Through making every attempt to keep the costs low for the vo-tech programs, the board does not want to have to increase them, but they must do just that, they said.

The board said it has been trying, but the costs have not been low enough to sustain the program. They want to keep the costs as low as possible, but they must do it.

North Haledon notes

November 12

North Haledon is one of the few towns in the area where you can find a Christmas Center. The center was opened last week and will be open until Christmas.

November 21

Charles Lenihan, a retired police officer, will be giving a talk on the history of North Haledon.

November 25

Mr. Lenihan will speak at the local library on the history of North Haledon.

November 30

The library will be open until Christmas, and the center will be open until the 25th.

Fuel-switching is no nickel-and-dime proposition.

Before you do it, the chambers of your car have been changed from a gas-burning engine to a kerosene- or diesel-burning engine, the new engine must be modified to accommodate the new fuel. This modification can be expensive and time-consuming.

If you decide to fuel-switch your car, you should consult with a professional who specializes in fuel-switching. They can help you determine the best way to switch and how much it will cost. They can also provide you with the necessary parts and equipment.

While fuel-switching may be a worthwhile investment for some, it is not a simple task and should not be taken lightly. Be sure to do your research and consult with experts before making any decisions.
