"THE WHITE HOUSE WILL NEVER BE FOR SALE" SAYS KENNEDY

Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy at Valley Stream, New York

Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy, widow of assassinated Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, visited the Valley Stream home of her sister Mrs. Robert S. Kennedy on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Kennedy, who was accompanied by several members of the Kennedy family, was scheduled to meet President Kennedy at Camp David on Sunday. The President was scheduled to return to the White House after the weekend.

SHERIFF DAVENPORT WANTS THE RETURN OF JURISDICTION OVER PASSAIC COUNTY JAIL

Sheriff J. H. Davenport of Passaic County, New Jersey, has stated that he wants the return of jurisdiction over the county jail to the sheriff's department. Davenport has been in office for the past three years and has been a strong advocate of the return of jurisdiction to the sheriff's department. The current system of having the jail operated by a private company has been criticized by Davenport.

1964 School Begins 28th Year of Instruction Here

The 1964 school year begins today with the opening of schools in Passaic County. The Passaic County Board of Education has approved a budget of $5.5 million for the year, which includes funds for the construction of new schools and the expansion of existing ones.
