AN OPEN QUESTIONNAIRE TO FRANK DAVENPORT

Early in the summer, I was called by a self-appointed candidate for the Davenport seat, Frank Davenport. The man said that he was an independent and that he had no opposition in the primary. He said he was running for the seat vacated by Representative Claude B. Hagerman, who had been elected to the United States Senate.

I replied that I was a candidate for the seat in the primary and that I was also running for the seat in the general election. The man said that he was running only for the general election and that he had no intention of running in the primary.

I asked the man why he was running for the seat in the general election and he said that he was running only for the seat in the general election. He said that he was running for the seat in the general election and that he had no intention of running in the primary.
